SPAIN.

Fight near Estelle.

MADRID, August 26.—On Sunday there was a severe engagement near Estelle, between five thousand Government troops and three thousand Carlists under Olio. The Carlists were defeated and their leader wounded.

Later.—Further details of the battle near Estelle on Sunday are to the effect that the Carlists, who were in large force and under their favorite leaders, were completely defeated by the Republican troops. They asked a truce to remove their dead and wounded, which was granted. The remains of the Carlist army retired towards the French frontier. Don Alfonso, brother of Don Carlos, and General Tristany are among the wounded.

Carlists Withdrawn from Berga.

The Carlists have withdrawn from the neighborhood of Berga, having apparently abondoned the idea of its reduction.

Supplies of the Cartagena Insurgents.

The Cartagena insurgents have three hundred pieces of cannon. They also have a large number of cattle and other supplies.

Six hundred insurgents who escaped from Valencia succeeded in reaching Cartagena, reinforcing the insurgent garrison there.

Ministerial Crisis Threatened.

The Ministers of War, Marine and Interior, and several Generals of the army, threaten to resign if the Government should decide to commute or in any way fail to execute the death sentences which will be pronounced upon Communist insurgents.

Carlist Retreat Confirmed.

MADRID, August 26.—The report that the Carlists have left the vicinity of Berga is fully confirmed by later advices.

A Village Destroyed.

The village of Tartella has been entirely destroyed by Carlists.

The Prosecution of the Captain of an Iron-clad Demanded.

MADRID, August 26.—In the Cortes Senor Olave demanded the prosecution of Hidalgo on a charge of having abandoned his post as Captain of the iron-clad Vittoria. He inquired of the Ministers whether the report that Hidalgo was going to Washington on a mission to the United States Government was correct. In consequence of Olave's action a duel with Hidalgo was imminent, but the intervention of friends prevented a hostile meeting.

War Vessels Withdrawn from Cartagena.

The fleet under command of admiral Lobo, which commenced to bombard Cartagena, has been compelled to withdraw out of range of the guns of the insurgents on account of the inferior armament of the vessels. They cannot co-operate with the artillery of the forts.

Contemplated Revolt Discovered.

A contemplated revolt by the crew of the Spanish frigate Carmen was discovered by the officers, and forty of the mutiniers were placed in confinement.

Carlists in Fraga.

A Carlist force has entered the town of Fraga, in Argion.

Castelar Elected President of the Cortes.

MADRID, August 26.—Senor Emilio Castelar was to-day elected President of the Cortes by a vote of 134 in his favor against 73 blanks.

Upon taking the chair Senor Castelar delivered a conservative speech. He said the troubles, difficulties and perils of the nation were increasing. The Republicans, while struggling to establish a republic, were united, but after they had achieved victory were divided, because an ideal always exists. The present Government represents a solid reality, and the opposition represents an ideal. He brilliantly traced the history of the Democracy, and declared that the death of the republic would be a sign of the death of liberty, and that the generation would be infamous which achieved liberty and failed to preserve it. I am a federalist, he said, but madness rends Spanish nationality, while Italy and Germany are becoming more united.

He reviewed the public life of Thiers, which he said was a life of warfare. In conclusion, Senor Castelar invoked Divine protection to save the liberty and integrity of Spain.

Reinforcements for Carlists.

MADRID, August 26.—Lizzaraga, with 3,000 men, is reported marching to reinforce the Carlist forces besieging Estelle, who now number 8,000. The latter were again defeated on Monday, with considerable loss, by a Republican force. In Estelle the Republican loss was fifty.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Postmaster General Resigned.

LONDON, August 26.—William Monsall, Postmaster General, has tendered his resignation, but at the solicitation of Mr. Gladstone he consents to remain temporarily in charge of the Department.

Cholera in Hungary.

A dispatch says the cholera is raging in Hungary, and that fifty per cent. of the cases prove fatal.

The Capture of Spanish Steamers.

The Times says the British Government, at the request of Germany, has sent orders to the commander of the British squadron in the Mediterranean to deliver to the Republican authorities the Spanish steamers Olmanza and Vittoria, but that the inferior force under Admiral Lobos makes the recapture of the vessels by the insurgents highly probable. If they are surrendered, the vessels are without crews, and cannot in their present condition be used against the insurgents.

The Bank of England Forgery Case.

LONDON, August 26.—The prosecution has closed their case against the Bank of England forgers, and the defense have opened. George Bidwell, the principal in the frauds, began the cross-examination of witnesses in the absence of his counsel.

Trades Union Demonstration.

At a demonstration of trades unionists at Edinburgh, on Saturday, 15,000 men were in the procession. The object of the demonstration was to protest against the criminal law amendment act.

Shaksperian Documents Discovered.

LONDON, August 26.—Some interesting Shaksperian documents have been discovered, which contradict recent theories touching Shakspeare's business connection with the theatres.

Fearful Storm.

The storm of Sunday and Sunday night was one of unprecedented severity. Accounts from Cambridge, Peterboro, Wisbeach, Newark, and other towns represent that the wind and lightning were appalling. Thousands of people refused to go to bed lest their houses should be overwhelmed while they slept. A number of fires were kindled by lightning, and many deaths are reported. Childerby Hall, near Cambridge, historically connected with the reign of Charles I., was struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

The Bank of England Forgers Sentenced.

LONDON, August 26.—The trial of the Bank of England forgers was brought to an end this afternoon. After George Bidwell had concluded his examination of witnesses for the prosecution he delivered an address to the court, in which he exonerated Austin Bidwell and Edwin Noyes from all complicity in frauds, and declared that he and George MacDonnel were the only guilty ones. Macdonnell also addressed the Court, bearing out the statements of Bidwell. The case was then given to the jury, who, after twenty minutes' deliberation, found all the accused guilty. Justice Archibald immediately sentenced each of the prisoners to penal servitude for life, the highest punishment under the laws for their offense.

HALIFAX.

Destructive Gale—A Ship Sunk.

HALIFAX, August 26.—A severe storm, accompanied by thunder, passed over this city on Saturday night and Sunday morning. The gale was the heaviest in many years. Several small yachts were smashed at their anchorage. The United States frigate Powhattan dragged her anchors and drifted to the ordnance wharf, where she was secured. Steam was kept up on her all day Sunday, in readiness for any emergency. The schooner Momenite, which left St. John June 19th, is believed to be lost, with seven persons on board. The body of a passenger has been picked up in that harbor. The ship St. Louis, with a general cargo, from Liverpool for Philadelphia, struck on Jib Rock and sunk. The crew were saved.

BELGIUM.

Great Conflagration in Antwerp.

ANTWERP, August 26.—A great fire was occasioned here last night by a stroke of lightning, which set fire to one of the largest warehouses in the city. This, with the surrounding buildings, was soon wrapped in flames and the entire block destroyed. The fire was still burning at ten o'clock this morning.

Later.—The fire among the warehouses in this city has been extinguished. The loss is estimated at $400,000.

AUSTRIA.

Medals to Americans.

VIENNA, August 26.—Of thirty thousand medals awarded to exhibitors at the Exposition, four hundred go to America. There is much dissatisfaction with the results of the Exposition. It is charged that a number of articles which were never entered for competition received medals, and that several firms which had none of their goods on exhibition were awarded diplomas through manipulations of the juries. The quantity of goods and specimens which will be returned home from the American department is very small. The exhibitors have been leaving in crowds as fast as they could get away since the close of the Exposition.

CUBA.

Severe Engagement.

There has been a very severe engagement between insurgents and troops near St. Iago de Cuba. The loss was heavy on both sides. The Spaniards admit losing sixty killed.

Disturbances Expected.

HAVANA, August 24.—Rumors are again rife of expected disturbances. The Republican and Conservative clubs hold meetings nightly.

Coffee Estate Burned.

Insurgents three hundred strong burned a small coffee estate in Brazo de Canto.

PORTUGAL.

A Fault Discovered in the Cable to Rio Janeiro.

LISBON, August 25.—The expedition which is laying a cable between this city and Rio Janeiro, after having proceeded three hundred and eighty-three knots, was stopped by the discovery of a fault in the wire. Tests have been made from which it is believed the fault is near the land. The expedition will continue paying out until it reaches Madeira, from whence the cable steamer will probably have to return to reach the fault.

EGYPT.

Sir Samuel Baker at Cairo.

ALEXANDRIA, August 26.—Sir Samuel Baker and party have reached Cairo, returning from the expedition into Africa.

THE CAPITAL.

Judge Holt and the Surratt Trial.

Senator Morton's "Back Pay" Covered Into the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, August 26, 1873.

Vindication of Judge Advocate General Holt.

Judge Advocate General Holt publishes in the Chronicle to-day a statement defending himself from the charges that he, when presenting the record of the trial of Mrs. Surratt to President Johnson, withheld from him a petition signed by five members of the Court, recommending, in consideration of her age and sex, commutation of her death sentence to imprisonment for life in prison. The communication embraces a letter from Judge Holt to Secretary Belknap, denying in toto the assertions referred to, and offering, as proofs of his innocence, letters from Judge Bingham, ex-Attorney General Speed, Hon. James Harlan, Rev. Dr. Butler, pastor of St. Paul's church, and many others, all of which are to the effect that the record of the trial and petition in favor of Mrs. Surratt were in the President's office before the execution of the conspirators. Judge Bingham's letter, dated February 17, 1873, states that having drawn a petition on behalf of Mrs. Surratt, and, having, after her execution, heard a report that it had been withheld from the President, he called on the Secretareis of State and War, Seward and Stanton, and was assured by them that the petition had been before the President and had been duly considered by him and his advisors before the death sentence upon Mrs. Surratt had been approved, and that the President and Cabinet, upon such consideration, were a unit in denying the prayer of the petition.

Senator Morton's "Back Pay" Covered Into the Treasury.

The Secretary of the Senate has received the following letter from Senator Morton:

NEW YORK, August 17, 1873.—Hon. George C. Gorham, Secretary of the United States Senate: You are hereby directed to return to the Treasury of the United States the money to which I am entitled by a law of the last Congress as increased compensation, known as "back pay." I had determined from the first that I would not draw this money, and now comply with the formality which seems necessary to close up the matter in your accounts.

[Signed.] O. P. MORTON.

Meteorological Convention in Vienna.

General Meyer, Chief Signal Officer, has sailed for Vienna, to attend a meeting of chiefs of the meteorological service at that place. The General hopes to see this convention take the first step to bring about a world-wide system of weather reports.

Bonds and Coupons from the London Syndicate.

The Treasury Department to-day received from the syndicate in London five million dollars in five-twenty bonds and cancelled coupons.

Fights with Indians Confirmed.

Official dispatches from General Stanley confirm the reports published on Monday relative to General Custar's fights with Indians.

FIRES.

Lynn, Mass.

BOSTON, August 26.—A fire in Lynn, last night, turned French's furniture store and manufactory, Chase & Green's furnishing Store, May & Whitney's clothing store, Robinson's jewelry store, Tuttle & Baley's grocery, and several other buildings. All moveable property was taken from the Sagamore house, but the building was saved.

STATE ITEMS.

THE Freeport Era editor is gone to the seaside. Sorry, but then he'll return. He's left another unfortunate in his chair. And yet, etc.

AN incendiary fire was attempted in Freeport the other day. It did very little damage.

A LUNATIC in Erie offers to jump from the top of the highest elevator in that city for twenty-five dollars. By all means raise the amount; it will prove the cheapest way of getting rid of him.

A VERY precocious youth of fifteen years tried to commit suicide at the house of his parents, in Conemaugh borough, on Saturday evening last. His supper was not prepared for him immediately upon his arrival, and instead of jawing the "old woman" he merely went up stairs, and tried to choke himself to death with a woolen comforter.

DURING a thunder storm on Monday afternoon the lightning struck the Canning well, three miles South of Oil City, shattering it completely. The fluid run down the three corners of the derrick, and one stream followed the cable. Hugh Toole, the driller, was turning the drill with a stick, and escaped with injuries of one side and arm. A two hundred and fifty barrel tank, standing near, was completely ruined.

A FEW days since Mrs. Clement B. Care, living in Warwick township, Chester county, near Hopewell Furnace, after putting her babe (four months old) to sleep, laid it in the cradle and went about the house attending to other duties, and after a little while she looked at the babe to see that all was right, and noticed how very pale it looked, and seemed so have great difficulty in breathing. Fearing that something was not right she took the child on her lap and began to examine its underclothing, and feeling something like a cord around the child' body, she stripped off its clothing, when a snake about thirty inches long, of some kind to her unknown, was found coiled tight around its body, nor did it slacken its coil until nearly every vestage of clothing was removed. His snakeship then made a hasty exit into a hole by the fire-hearth. How it got into the cradle and under the clothing, without being observed by Mrs. Care, who was in the room all the time, remains to her a mystery.

—Two Italian padrones and six boys were arrested in New Haven, Conn., last Monday evening. They had fled from 45 Crosby street, New York. The padrones have been placed under bonds of $1,000 each to appear for trial in September. The boys are very young.

POLITICAL.

The Democratic Gathering at Wilkesbarre.

The "Back Pay" Business the Exciting Topic.

Double Delegation from Allegheny County.

Elwell, of Columbia, the Favorite for the Judgeship.

Lively Fight in the Allegheny Delegation.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.
WILKESBARRE, August 26, 1873.

The evening trains brought large numbers to attend the Democratic Convention.

The "Back-Pay" Business.

There is not much talk about the candidates, the interest centering on whether the Convention will pass over or denounce the "back-pay" business. A large, influential and industrious number of delegates are working to shield the Democratic members who took the pay, but it looks to-night as if they would fail. Randall Meyers, of Bedford, Speer, of Huntingdon, Getz, of Berks, and McClelland, of Lawrence, have their heads together to prevent it, and do succeed in getting quite a following; but Klotz, of Carbon, Donnelly, of Westmoreland, Miller, of Washington, and McCreary, of Beaver, are hot on the other side.

Double Delegation from Allegheny County.

The double delegation from Allegheny county creates considerable talk. It is conceded that Dan Barr will have more votes without the Allegheny delegation than Hutchinson will have with it, should his whole delegation be admitted. Barr's friends claim that they could nominate him, but that the chances of an election are so small that they can well afford to withdraw him after a complimentary vote, and then centre on Lower, of Reading, or Sheriff Perks, of Centre.

The Judgeship.

Elwell, of Columbia, seems to be the favorite for Judge, although Ross, of Bucks, Graham, of Cumberland, and Trunkey, of Venango, have each their active friends here.

A Flutter Among the Roosters.

The defeat of Senator Billy Randall, of Schuylkill, yesterday, in that county, for renomination, creates a flutter here among the roosters.

Sam Josephs in Trouble.

Sam Josephs is in trouble. Some one threatens to contest his seat in the Convention, and he is gloomy. "Mully," as Bill McMullen is familiarly called, is here, and as active as ever. They don't seem to keep him out of the Democratic party worth a cent.

Lively Fight in the Allegheny Delegation.

The fight in the Allegheny delegation to-night is about as lively and threatens to be as bitter as anything which ever occurred in political circles. John Elder arrived on the late train with a few friends for Barr, and the dance went on livelier than ever. They declare that if Hutchinson is nominated, a separate organization will be gotten up and maintained in Allegheny, regardless of all former political associations or ties, and that they will never submit to the "roughing it" which has been practiced upon them. Altogether, the thing looks like a funeral here.

The Gubernatorial Campaign in Massachusetts Opened.

WORCESTER, MASS., August 26.—General Butler opened the Gubernatorial campaign to-night by a speech in Mechanics' Hall, which was filled to overflowing. When Butler appeared on the platform three cheers were feebly given and a volley of hisses, but his speech was attentively listened to and the effective points applauded. After two hours of mingled sarcasm and statistics, well woven in his own defense, the General closed without interruption from any source. The speech was largely devoted to his personal controversy with Hoar and the Hamilton Hall Committee. His remarks in reference to the back pay bill were mainly a repetition of the views published in his letter some days since, but he made the proposition that if his colleagues, past and present, Hoar, Baldwin, Dawes, Sumner, Boutwell and Washburne, would return all the back salary they had received, he would do the same.

Butler spoke insultingly of the press of the country that had set up a howl about the "salary grab," and referred in terms the reverse of complimentary to some of the newspaper correspondents. Speaking of the prohibitory law, the General said that if he had the power it should be enforced everywhere, to great and small alike, so that the people would be able to ascertain just what sort of a law it was: if good, they will sustain it; if not, they will give us another and a better one, that shall help forward the good cause of temperance, as all men desire. The labor question was briefly alluded to.

People's Party Convention in Cincinnati.

The People's Party Convention met to-day and nominated a State and county ticket; for State Senators, Hon. W. B. Caldwell, A. B. C. Bonte, Robt. Brown; for Representatives in the Legislature, Irvin B. Wright, Moses F. Wilson, Theo. Marsh, W. H. Pugh, I. Mullaney, H. A. Ratterman, Howard Doughless, H. F. Brashears, John S. Bowles and E. M. Davis.

ST. LOUIS.

Ejectment Suit.

ST. LOUIS, August 26.—Another ejectment suit, involving the recovery of a large and valuable tract of land in this county, has been brought in the United States District Court and the Circuit Court of this county. The plaintiffs are Patrick Ryan, of Iowa, Louis S. LeBourgerise, Elizabeth C. Bourgerise, Charlotte T. C. Havan, of Louisiana, Wm. Walker Mary Walker, Wm. Tatum, Pelagia Tatum, of Arkansas, Frank A. Rector, of Texas, Thomas H. Rector, of California, and Charls H. Murray, of New Jersey. The defendants are Henry S. Carter, Jacob Becker, Bernard Slevin, Thomas O'Leary Thomas C. and Leonard C. McNamara, Elizabeth C. Moore and David Ross of St. Louis county. The land sought to be recovered consists of three hundred and ninety-six acres, valued at six hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars, and was originally ceded by the Spanish Government to August Doderl in the year 1800.

Suit for Damages.

Robert H. Jackson, formerly employed on the bridge here, has sued the Keystone Bridge Company of Pittsburgh for twenty-five thousand dollars damages for the loss of a leg, which was crushed and mangled by reason of defective machinery used by the company.

Suicide.

Nicholas Corey, forty-five years old, hung himself at his home yesterday afternoon. Loss of property, which induced dissipation, was the cause of the act.

SARATOGA.

The National Temperance Convention.

SARATOGA, August 26.—The National Temperance Convention was called to order to-day by Hon. Wm. E. Dodge, and after prayer Professor Jocelyn, President of Albion College, Michigan, was chosen Chairman. Among the delegates are Col. W. Ray, of Indiana, and William Baxter, another advocate of the celebrated Indiana law.

The Chairman, recognizing a difference of opinion concerning political action, advised harmony, and hoped something more would be done than the adoption of mere resolutions. Secreteries were then appointed, and also a Committee on Credential.

In the afternoon a permanent organization was effected by the election of Judge R. C. Pitman, of Massachusetts, for Pesident, and the usual number of secretaries.

A Committee on Resolutions was appointed, when the Convention adjourned until to-morrow.

SPORTING NEWS.

The Turf.

LONG BRANCH, August 26.—First race, for three-year olds, winners excluded, 1¼ miles; won by Stonehenge; time 2:14½.

Second race, selling race for all ages, 1¼ miles; won by Business; time 2:14½.

Third race, 1 mile; won by Utica; time 1:51½.

Marine News.

NEW YORK, August 26.—The steamships City of Limerick, from Liverpool, and Italia, from Glasgow, have arrived.

LIVERPOOL, August 26.—The steamships Cimbria, Darian, Wyoming, Celtic, and Hansa, from New York, and Sarmatian, from Montreal have arrived out.

NEW YORK.

Reduction in Freight Rates to the West.

$30,000 Worth of Diamonds Seized.

NEW YORK, August 26, 1873.

Kate Stoddard's Love Affairs.

Some one who affects to know, gives this story in connection with the Goodrich murder, the interest in which has been revived by the recent action of the police authorities: Kate Stoddard, when she was known by her true name, Betty King, went to school where there were four young Spaniards, and one of them was called Roscoe. She was attached to the young man, and before she disappeared from her parents' abode she was regarded as his betrothed. She is said to have renewed this acquaintance afterwards in New York, and this, too, at the time when Charles Goodrich appeared upon the scene. This Roscoe is probably the one to whom Lucette Meyers points as the one who killed Goodrich for robbing him of the affections of Kate Stoddard.

Reduction in Freight Rates to the West.

The competition between the trunk lines for western freight continues, and a further general reduction in tariffs by the Erie, New York Central and Pennsylvania Central has just been adopted. The following is a list of the stations, with the reductions, and new rates per hundred-weight for first-class merchandise, which includes dry goods, boots and shoes, ready made clothing, etc.; New York to Toledo, reduced from 58 cents to 31 cents; New York to Detroit, from 53 cents to 28 cents; to Cleveland, O., from 49 cents to 26 cents; to Columbus, O., from 60 cents to 32 cents; to Cincinnati, O., from 70 cents to 37 cents; to Indianapolis, from 51 cents to 38 cents; to Louisville, Ky., from 86 cents to 49 cents; to Nashville, Tenn., from $1 10 to 73 cents; to Memphis, Tenn., $1.35 to 98 cents; to St. Louis, Mo., from 97 cents to 55 cents; to Fort Wayne, Ind., from 65 cents to 35 cents; to Chicago and Milwaukee, from 53 cents to 28 cents; to Atchison and Leavenworth, from $1 39 to 97 cents; to Kansas City and St. Joseph, from $1.39 to 97 cents. To Lake Erie ports, which include Cleveland, Toledo and Detroit, steam rates have been reduced to 24 cents, and to Lake Michigan ports, which include Chicago, Milwaukee and Green Bay, with steam around the lakes, the tariff for first-class goods is 27 cents.

Diamond Seizure.

N. L. Lancaster, of Chicago, who was returning there for the benefit of his health, arrived from Europe on Saturday, having with him thirty thousand dollars worth of diamonds, obtained in the gold fields of South Africa. On landing at the pier Customs officer Livingston took from Lancaster a small satchel containing diamonds and declared them seized, alleging that Lancaster denied having dutiable goods. The latter gentleman, however, asserts that he told the Inspector he had diamonds, and accounted for their possession by saying he had dug some and purchased others in South Africa. He also claims there is no duty on uncut diamonds, and denies that he made any attempt at concealment, having displayed them among his fellow passengers and refused offers of purchase, desiring them for his own use. Lancaster goes to Washington to demand the restoration of his property, and will bear with him affidavits of his late associate travelers, certifying to the truthfulness of his own statements.

Railway Fares to the West Reduced.

Several of the outside city railway ticket offices have recently made a considerable reduction in the prices of tickets to prominent points in the West. The fare to Cleveland is thus reduced from $14 25 to $12 50, to Chicago from $22 to $19 50, and to Cincinnati from $20 to $18. None of the regular Broadway offices have been authorized to make a reduction, but they will probably be compelled to come down to cheap rates, or lose business.

Almost a Disaster.

The steamship City of Limerick ran into the new stone pier near the Battery to-day, knocking in the massive masonry to a depth of three feet and forcing heavy blocks of granite from their places for several yards each side of the point of contact. It is stated the steamer is uninjured, but as a precautionary measure no passengers will be taken on the return trip.

Vincenzo Motto Discharged.

The United States Commissioner has discharged Vincenzo Motto, accused of being a padrone, on the ground that his was a clear case of mistaken identity. The children found where he resided have been committed temporarily to the care of the Commissioners of Charities.

Pacific Mail S. S. Co.

F. Alexander, of the New York, Mexican and Havana Steamship Company, was elected director of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company to-day in place of George Palmer, resigned. The subject of a loan from the Panama Railroad Company was discussed, but definite action was deferred till the next meeting.

Railway Mortgages to be Foreclosed.

The bondholders of the St. Joseph & Denver City Railroad, at a meeting to-day, appointed a committee to secure the foreclosure of the mortgages of the road, the Company having, as alleged, failed to pay the interest.

Judgment Paid.

Comptroller Green to-day paid the amount of Judge Fowler's judgment against the city, and the sheriff's levy on city property was raised.

WEATHER REPORT.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 1 A. M., August 27, 1873.

Synopsis for the Past Twenty-four Hours.

The barometer has risen slightly in New England and the St. Lawrence valley, where cool and clear weather and light northerly to easterly winds are reported; partly cloudy and threatening weather prevail in the Middle States and lower lake region, the winds in the lower lake being light to fresh from the northeast; in the upper lake region, and thence westward to the Missouri valley, partly cloudy and clear weather, low temperature and slightly increased pressure are reported; light, variable winds, and partly cloudy weather and light rain in the Ohio valley and central Mississippi valley; generally clear weather, with light southerly winds and calms, prevail in the South Atlantic and Gulf States.

Probabilities for To-day.

In New England, the pressure will increase slightly, with lower temperature and clear or partly cloudy weather.

For the lower lake region and the Middle States, light northwesterly and southwesterly winds, with less cloudiness and light local rains.

For the Ohio valley and the upper lake region, low temperature, increasing pressure, light, variable winds, partly cloudy and clearing weather.

For the South Atlantic and Gulf States, generally clear weather with high temperature, and light southerly to westerly winds.

For the Northwest, continued low barometer, lightly easterly to westerly winds, with areas of light rain.

FEARFUL STORM.

Marine Disasters.

CHATHAM, N. B., August 26.—A furious gale, easterly winds, accompanied by a heavy rain, commenced on Sunday morning, and raged with extreme violence until Monday morning. Great marine disasters are reported. Seven square rigged vessels are ashore and wrecked at Richibucto. Two vessels were driven ashore in Miramicki river, with several schooners. Bridges were carried away and communication stopped both by mail and telegraph.

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., August 26.—The storm commenced on Saturday morning, and lasted until last night. The tide rose several feet higher than usual, swept away a number of wharves, and eight barks and several brigs were driven ashore, only two or three of which will be saved. There were two or three schooners lost. Grain in the fields was greatly damaged.

BUCTOUCHI, N. B., August 26.—The storm raged here for forty-six hours. Houses, barns and woodsheds were blown down. One bark was driven high and dry. Several schooners were totally wrecked. Three lives were lost. Several bridges were carried off. The telegraph wires and posts were carried into the river.

PERCE QUE, August 26.—A heavy easterly gale, with rain, commenced on Saturday, and continued to rage until this morning. Forty fishing boats were damaged by the storm.

Trial of Beer Sellers in Massachusetts.

WORCESTER, MASS., August 26.—The trial of German beer dealers in this city was concluded to day. The defence offered was that the beer sold was "schenck beer," and not "lager beer," and that it was not intoxicating. The jury was out six hours, but failed to agree, six being for conviction and six for acquittal. After the jury had reported the Court adjourned sine die. The result is considered as a victory for the Germans, and the cases will probably be dropped by the Government.

A TEMPERANCE TICKET.

The Temperance Convention Yesterday.

Platform and Resolutions Adopted—A Full Ticket Placed in the Field—A Harmonious Gathering—Executive Committee Appointed—The Temperance Party Thoroughly Organized—Full Record of the Proceedings.

Yesterday morning, according to a call previously issued, the Temperance party of Allegheny county met in Delegate Convention to nominate a county ticket. Some time before the hour of convening (ten o'clock), the delegates commenced to assemble, and, in little knots and groups by themselves, they discussed the merits of candidates and the moral questions at issue. Evidently all took a seemingly great interest in the work to come before them. There were a few ladies present, who were kept busy recording the names of the delegates as they arrived.

ORGANIZING.

A little after ten o'clock Mr. T. H. Rabe, Chairman of the County Executive Committee, called the Convention to order, and read the call which had been issued and under which the Convention had assembled.

Rev. Mr. Andrews then offered up an impressive prayer, and asked a Divine guidance for the Convention.

The prayer over, the chair announced that the first business in order was the election of a temporary Secretary. Rev. Mr. Witherspoon was chosen.

THE CREDENTIALS.

The chair announced that the appointment of a Committee on Credentials was next in order. He said that it was understood that all persons friendly to the cause would be entitled to seats.

Mr. Kirk was in favor of dispensing with a formal committee on credentials, as some who were fully entitled to seats would have trouble in procuring them.

The chair stated that it would only take a few moments. That the list had been prepared and other names could be added with very little trouble.

On motion the appointment of the committee was carried. The chair appointed Messrs. Ross, Warren, Weekly, Hood and Garber.

MR. SMITH SAYS A WORD.

While the committee was at work on credentials, Mr. Smith arose and said a few words congratulating himself that so many ladies were present. He wanted to know what other political organization, called together to make nominations, was so highly honored. He was old now, but when he was young he liked the girls and wanted the girls to like him—as every young man did who had good sense. He thought the ladies would exert a powerful influence for good in the temperance cause if they would refuse to countenance any young man who uses wine, beer, ale or whisky as a beverage.

Mr. W. B. Ross reported the list of delegates, after which Rev. Mr. Witherspoon moved for the appointment of a Committee on Permanent Organization. The chair appointed Messrs. H. D. McGraw, Ormond, Carr, Miller and McGonigle. While the committee were out, Rev. D. H. Pollock, of Elizabeth, was called upon. He said he had been contrasting the present meeting with other meetings called for a similar purpose, and he felt gratified that the meeting this morning was beyond comparison. He spoke of the success of the efforts of the temperance men in his district. He thought the temperance men should not falter, as they had forced their opponents into the last ditch. He claimed that the movement was the cause of morality and humanity, and that the friends should stand firm together.

PERMANENTLY ORGANIZED.

The Committee on Permanent Organization then reported as follows, through their chairman, Mr. Hugh D. McGraw:

President—Col. John Glenn.

Vice Presidents—Wm. B. Ross, Thomas Smith, D. S. Kennedy, Dr. S. P. Jennings, James Kelley, Rev. D. H. Pollock, Joshua Stephenson.

Secretary—David Rodgers.

These nominations were unanimously adopted.

Upon taking the chair Col. Glenn made a few remarks thanking the Convention for the honor confered upon him. He said the Convention had been called because the great political parties had refused to pledge themselves in favor of the cause of temperance. A new organization which had sprung into existence recently, also lacked the moral courage to pronounce against the liquor interest. He said the object was to organize a total prohibition party in this county. He concluded by urging every one present to labor for the success of the movement, and claimed that its benefits could not be over-estimated.

On motion of Mr. Ross, a committee of five, with Rev. Dr. Swift as Chairman, was appointed to prepare a platform. The Chair appointed Dr. Swift, W. B. Ross, C. L. Rose, Arthur Kirk and T. H. Rabe.

A LITTLE TALK.

Rev. Mr. Weekly thought it would be wise to discuss the object of this Convention. Some were in doubt whether the object was to nominate a ticket or merely to consider the expediency of effecting an organization.

Rev. Mr. Pollock said, if the Convention was not called for the purpose of nominating a ticket he had mistaken his mission to the Convention. There was no doubt of the practicability of the total prohibition movement. The only question could be as to the feasability.

At this point "Benton" Kerr, who had a "back seat," gained the floor, and announced that he was a delegate from the Eleventh ward, Allegheny. He then announced that he had prepared "an address on temperance, showing the baneful effects of intemperance." He proceeded with some prefatory remarks, but was exhausted when he had finished, and concluded to defer the reading of the address till some future time.

TO BUSINESS.

Rev. Mr. Ormond moved that the convention proceed to nominate candidates for county offices. The gentleman favored the appointment of a committee to make suggestions of names.

A delegate moved that the nominations be made by the convention. Carried.

After some discussion as to the advisibility of appointing a committee, the convention decided that it should be appointed.

Mr. Weekly thought it would be well to have a platform, so candidates would know where they stood.

A PLATFORM.

At this point Rev. Dr. Swift, Chairman of the Committee on Platform, announced that the Committee was ready to report. He then read the following:

To the Citizens of Allegheny County:

We, the delegates appointed by the various wards, boroughs and townships of Allegheny county, in Convention assembled at the rooms of the Christian Temperance Alliance, on the 26th day of August, 1873, would respectfully submit,

That we have this day, after due deliberation, determined to organize a Prohibition party. We have placed in nomination a full ticket for county officers, and we have endeavored to devise measures for the prompt and vigorous canvass of the county.

We think we have good grounds for the stand we have taken, and we ask you to consider candidly a few of the reasons which have influenced us in the adoption of this platform:

First—The great civil and social reform which we advocate is worthy of and now demands of nation the a new party. This prohibition party is entitled to the sympathy and support of all good citizens, for it antagonizes directly with the liquor interest, the most demoralizing and destructive power which now threatens the Nation.

Second—All experience has shown that moral suasion to reclaim the drunkard, and political action to suppress the business of the drunkard maker, must go hand in hand.

Third—The character of all existing political parties demand it; they have become hopelessly corrupt, and are no longer worthy of the confidence of our people. Great multitudes of our most upright, intelligent and influential citizens have been groaning under their tyranny, and are now anxiously casting about for some way of escape from their domination. They will hail with joy the appearance of a "ticket" for which they can conscientiously vote.

Fourth—In thus determining to deal with the slavery of intemperance we are but pursuing the course which the majority of this great nation regarded as necessary in dealing with negro slavery. It was only when the opposition to that system assumed the form of political action, that slave-holders became alarmed. And if political action was so necessary, then should we ignore it now in dealing with this more wide-spread, powerful, and heinous traffic.

Fifth—The formation of the Prohibition party in our county is demanded by the action which is being taken in our sister States. Nearly every county in Ohio has nominated a Prohibition ticket. In many parts of our extended country, the friends of temperance are being aroused. They are persuaded that there is no middle course; that the choice must be between unrestricted license or total prohibition, and that there can be no effective prohibition without political action. It is therefore demanded of us in Allegheny county that we promptly form "into line" and stand shoulder to shoulder with the friends of humanity and religion elsewhere.

Having thus adverted to the general grounds on which we justify the organization of a new political party, we feel constrained to set forth more specifically, some of the grievances under which we labor from this liquor traffic, as citizens of Allegheny county, and of the two large cities in the centre of it.

We unhesitatingly affirm, then, that the Republican party, which has for many years been the dominant party of this county, and with which many of us have voted, is to a very large extent under the influence of liquor men; that they have constrained it through fear, to yield to their impudent, unreasonable and iniquitous demands; and that it has been in the interest of this unprincipled class that primary meetings and party Conventions have been managed.

In confirmation of the foregoing statements, allow us to cite a few facts with which every citizen is familiar: The Republican party gave us representatives in our Legislature some of whom (we rejoice that they were honorable exceptions) endeavored in March last to evade by every possible artifice and trick, their solemn obligation to their constituents. They sought if possible, to deprive us of the privilege of voting under the Local Option law. It has given us men in our Constitutional Convention, some of whom advocated and voted for a prohibitory clause; but after the vote on the 21st of March, being nominated for office, they found reason to change their views, and on the final reading voted against and so defeated the cause.

It has given us a Mayor in one of our cities whose character and habits are a disgrace to the people over whom he presides. How can we expect the maintenance of order and sobriety under the administration of a man whose example encourages the very vice which it is his business to restain?

It has given us a police force in each of our cities, which, instead of enforcing existing laws for the protection of the honest, sober and peaceful citizens, is actually in sympathy with and endeavoring to protect the lawless liquor dealer from detection, prosecution and punishment.

It has by its support created a public press which was afraid to take a stand in favor of law and order, sobriety and morality, during the Local Option campaign, and who would not publish communications on temperance unless inserted as advertisements and paid for by the men on whose good-will and daily patronage they chiefly depend.

It has given us Jury Commissioners who, through their cunning manipulation gave us a Grand Jury, in June last, the majority of whom have violated their own oaths by ignoring bills in the face of the most positive testimony, and even when the defendant had previously confessed his guilt before the justice. Thus conscientious and law-abiding citizens, who had come before these perjured jurors with liquor cases, the form and evidence of which were without an objection or a doubt, have not only been subject to insult and mortification, but have been burdened with the payment of costs.

It has given us, by its complicity with this liquor traffic, most burdensome taxation—the sums having been collected for this purpose for a single year in Allegheny county alone, amounting to $556,761.16, over the revenue received from liquor licenses, etc. To this may be added a very large proportion of $183,392 09, the amount paid in the two cities for the police force, an expenditure which might be reduced to a comparatively insignificant sum, if it were not for the vice of intemperance.

This unnecessary and unreasonably oppression of the people is increasing in its enormity every year. How long the citizens will continue to support a party pursuing such a policy is now to be tested by a prohibition ticket.

Influenced by the foregoing considerations, we have this day adopted the following resolutions which are similar, with a few verbal alterations, to those of the State Prohibition Convention which met in Altoona in June, 1872:

1. Resolved, That we should, and hereby do, organize a political party to be known as the Prohibition Party of Allegheny county, to co-operate with the State Prohibition Party, and that we firmly

Resolved, That the traffic in intoxicating beverages is a dishonor to Christian civilization, inimical to the interests of society, a political wrong of unequalled enormity, subversive of the ordinary objects of government, not capable of being regulated or restrained by any system of license whatever, but imperatively demanding for its suppression, effective legal prohibition, both by State and National legislation.

Resolved, That there can be no greater peril to the nation than the existing party competition for the liquor vote; that any party not openly opposed to the traffic, experience shows, will engage in this competition, will court the favor of the criminal classes, will barter away the public morals, the purity of the ballot, and every object of good government, for party success.

Resolved, That adopting political measures for the prohibition of the liquor traffic—a political evil of gigantic proportions—we will continue the use of all moral means in our power to persuade men from the injurious practice of using intoxicating beverages.

Resolved, That we invite all persons whether total abstainers or not, who recognize the terrible injuries inflicted by the liquor traffic, to unite with us for its overthrow, and to secure thereby peace, order and the protection of person and property, and we submit the nomination this day made as the only party nominations openly pledged to secure these ends.

Resolved, That while prohibition of the liquor traffic in Pennsylvania is our primary object, we, in common with our fellow-citizens, are interested in, and shall faithfully endeavor to maintain, through our candidates, the imperishable principles of civil and religious liberty embodied in the Declaration of American Independence and our Federal and State Constitutions; the inseparable union of the States; the inviolability of the Notional and State debts; the payment of the same as rapidly as our resources will admit; the faithful and impartial execution of the laws; the election to office only of competent, honest and sober men, and the performance of assumed duties by all office holders; the strictest economy in public expenditures; that fixed and moderate salaries should take the place of official fees, the fees to go into the public treasury, thus removing the temptation to corruption and venality in office; the fostering and extension of our public school system to meet the objects and wants of general and liberal education; the support of windows and invalid soldiers, and a general provision for the care and education of the orphans of our fallen soldiers; the protection of life, liberty and property of all inhabitants of the Commonwealth; protection of domestic industry and the development of agriculture and commerce, and the maintenance of all rights of labor.

Resolved, That relying upon Almighty God for His blessing upon the truths underlying the Prohibition party movement, we confidently appeal to the judgment and patriotism of our fellow-citizens to embody and forever establish these truths as the basis of a true State and National policy.

THE DOCUMENT DISCUSSED.

After some discussion the Convention proceeded to discuss the resolutions seriatim.

The first resolution was read and adopted. When the second was read, a delegate said he was opposed to lugging in the issues which have been discussed by the dominant parties. He thought that the simple issue should be prohibition. After a somewhat protracted discussoin the resolution was stricken out.

The remaining resolutions were then adopted without amendment.

"Benton" Kerr wanted to offer a substitute for the entire document, and failing, he left in disgust.

The preamble evoked much discussion, and it was finally decided to appoint a committee, with Dr. Swift as chairman, to remodel the preamble and put it in the shape of an address to the people of the county.

AGAIN TO ITS OBJECT.

The platform having been constructed, nominations were in order. Candidates were not very plenty, and several names that were mentioned were withdrawn, because it was known that they would not accept the nominations if tendered.

After several nominations had been made, Prof. Crum said he was in favor of supporting the friends who had stood by the cause in the past. He moved that the name of Senator Anderson be placed in nomination.

Mr. Nicholson said he was opposed to placing the Senator on the ticket. If a straight-out prohibition ticket was to be placed in the field the candidates of the other parties should be let alone.

Prof. Crum withdrew his motion.

WHO WERE CHOSEN—THE TICKET.

The following ticket was nominated out of those named. In most instances there was no opposition:

President Judge, District Court—Hon. Moses Hampton. Nominated by acclamation.

Associate Judge—John H. Bailey. Nominated by acclamation.

State Senate—James McCandless. Nomination by acclamation.

Assembly—First district, George Wilson; nominated by acclamation. Second district, A. N. McGonnigle; nominated by acclamation. Third district, D. J. Rogers, Jonathan Gallagher, of Allegheny; James Davis, John Moody, David N. White, of Sewickley.

Prothonotary—Wm. Swissheim. Nominated by acclamation.

Treasurer—W. W. Greer, of Verona borough.

County Commissioners—Isaac Mills, of Braddocks, three years, and John Thompson, Sewickley, two years.

Jury Commissioner—Jos. Birmingham. By acclamation.

Director of Poor—Wm. Elliott, of Jefferson township. By acclamation.

Coroner—W. G. Warren. By acclamation.

DR. SWIFT REPORTS.

Dr. Swift stated that the committee appointed to revise the preamble desired to strike out that portion which reflected upon the Grand Jury, and upon the Mayor, because the proofs of the assertion were not in possession of the members of the Convention. He suggested some verbal amendments, and stated that if they were made, the preamble, which had already been copied by the reporters, could be published.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the appointment of a committee, and to fill any vacancies which might occur on the ticket, as well as to appoint vigilance committees in every district in the country. The following committee was appointed: W. B. Ross, Joseph Dickson, Thos. H. Rabe, Colonel John Glenn, Arthur Kirk.

Mr. Rabe moved that a dispatch be prepared and forwarded to the National Prohibition Convention, now in session at Saratoga. Adopted.

Mr. Kirk read a communication from the former executive committee, recommending some practical method of raising money to carry on the campaign. On motion the Convention adjourned.

To the Community.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH,
MUNICIPAL HALL,
PITTSBURGH, August 6, 1873.

Proprietors Pittsburgh Tar Chemical Works:

GENTLEMEN—Your note of July 30th, asking for an opinion as to the merits of your "Carbolate Powder," as a disinfectant, has been received.

I am directed to inform you, in reply, that having tested your "Carbolate Powder," the Board of Health can cordially recommend it to the public as a cheap and effective deodorant and disinfectant. Very truly yours,

CROSBY GRAY, Health Officer.

It is hardly necessary to add anything to the above. The fact that the Board of Health recommends for general use the Carbolate Powder will convince all of our readers that it is in every respect fully what it is claimed to be. It should be in every house, and freely and plentifully sprinkled wherever a disagreeable odor can be detected. In view of the probability of the approach of cholera every precaution should be taken to ward it off, and nothing can be more effective for that purpose than the Carbolate Powder recommended above.

Special Train for Races

At Friendship Driving Park, will leave Union Depot at 2 o'clock (city time) on Wednesday, August 27.

OIL MATTERS.

Some Misstatements Corrected.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

I see by an article copied from the Titusville Courier that that paper continues to harp on the threadbare song of over-production of oil, and to justify the prediction of 40,000 barrels daily, makes some statements calculated to mislead those unacquainted with the facts. It states that the Troutman oil field covers one thousand acres, and that there are on five farms eleven wells, producing six thousand seven hundred and seventy-five barrels daily. The five farms, together with the McLellan farm, contain probably nine hundred acres, and it is a well known fact to oil operators that the oil producing part of farms is not over one-fifth of the whole tract; and this belt, so called, is not more than forty or fifty rods wide and one and a fourth miles long, or four hundred rods long by fifty wide, making just one hundred and twenty-five acres of oil land, instead of one thousand. As to the product of these wells the Courier falls into the usual error of continuing to quote the first day's production as the continuous product, whereas, some of these wells have fallen off one-half in ten or fifteen days, and all have fallen off materially from the first day's product. The writer visited these wells within a few days and hazards nothing in venturing the opinion that the wells spoken of were not producing five thousand barrels daily; for it is a well known fact that the Butler oil wells are short lived. One well that was struck the last of January that produced three hundred barrels per day during February was down last week to twenty-five barrels per day, and the most of the wells four months old are down two-thirds.

In making up the forty thousand barrels daily product, spoken of, the Courier must have estimated the upper oil fields at their last winter's product, whereas it is known to all who wish to ascertain facts, that wells are daily stopping there, and that all have fallen off largely, and that developing has almost entirely ceased in the upper oil regions, and is confined to a small section of Butler county, near Troutman, and between that and Greece City and Karns City and Millerstown; and if all the wells that ought to go down in that district are put down, it will not keep the production for six months over the demand. These are facts which oil bears cannot controvert.

OIL PRODUCER.

LATEST OIL ITEMS.

A dispatch to the Oil City Derrick says: A new well on the McClelland Farm, two miles above Greece City, reached the sand and began flowing at the rate of two hundred and fifty barrels; Parker, Thompson & Co. are the principal owners. A new well was struck on the Christee Farm, north of Greece City, on Saturday; it is flowing about three hundred barrels; it is owned by Pittsburgh parties. The Salisbury well struck on Friday on the McDermid Farm, near Millerstown; it flowed five hundred barrels. The Seep well, on the McClurg farm, east of Modoc, flowed five hundred and ninety-four barrels by actual measurement in twenty-four hours the day after being struck. Asa Say, of Oil City, has a new well near the big iron tanks at Greece City, reported flowing about a hundred barrels.

The eleven wells now flowing in the vicinity of Modoc, produce as follows: Troutman, 375; Grace No. 1, 150; Grace No. 2, 450; Overly & Brawley, 400; Percy & Beck, 350; Boyer, 425; Modoc, 400; Captain Jack, 325; Dean, 600; Thompson, 700; Seep, 550. Nearly all have declined greatly from their first yield, and the chances are that several will have to be tubed and pumped within a few weeks.

BONDS at Frankfort 97½.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp 38¼.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 115¼.

THE New York Tribune now explains that its criticism on the "gold deficiency," as it called it, were not meant to convey the idea that there was an actual defalcation. In other words, it believes the gold to be all right, but the accounts slightly wrong. It would have been nearer the truth had it admitted that these accounts are not complete oftener, probably, than once in the year—when the yearly balance sheet is made up. It is a very small hole for the Tribune to crawl through in getting out of its bad fix.

THE plan of the anthracite coal dealers, to advance the price of coal ten and fifteen cents per month during the fall and winter, meets with active remonstrance from the press at the East. The companies answer this, that the advance is necessary to secure dividends on the increased value of their lands and fixtures, and the increased cost of labor. This is certainly a very strange view, as these increased valuations are merely estimates, and not outlays. The proposed advance in price will occasion much suffering in Eastern cities next winter.

THE disaster on the Chicago and Alton railroad has resulted in an agitation in the West, in favor of double tracks for railroads. Here the surprise is that the strong railroads at the West have not already adopted the double track system. It is thoroughly proven, by experience on our railroads, that it greatly reduces the expenses of running trains where double tracks are used. Much of the time lost on switches is saved by the use of double tracks. This time counts as a large element in the expense of operating the roads. Add to this the saving of collision, and we have the full record. It pays to use double tracks.

THE course of the war in Spain has been such, for several months past, that public interest has flagged, and now but little concern is felt over the prospects of the Republic. A few victories like those recently achieved by the Government troops, as against the Carlists, will have the effect of reviving hope in the prosperity of the Republic. Better than all, these victories, if continued, will serve to strengthen the claims that are to be presented by Castelar in favor of the recognition of the Republic by the several European Powers. We have quite despaired at the Republic, but are none the less desirous that it shall succeed. Regenerated Spain, freed from priestly dominancy, may command again the admiration of the world.

WE are gratified to notice the promised action of the merchants of New York, to curtail or overcome the evil of gold gambling in that city. In place of bidding for and buying Government gold, these merchants have been in the habit of speculating, and thus fostering the very evils they now so bitterly bemoan. The uncertainties of the gold market have their influence on the importations of merchandise and the success of trade. As a result, business is seriously injured by the advance in the price of gold, but more than else by its fluctuations. It is the uncertainty which gathers around business that is its chief danger. We hope the lesson that is derived from the present threatening aspect of the gold market will have more than a temporary influence on the minds of the merchants.

PRESIDENT GRANT is represented by the New York Herald correspondent as referring to Colfax, and the sad result of his declining an office not yet tendered him, as a reason why he should not decline a third term when it has not been offered him yet. There is little doubt that Colfax was really anxious for a second term as Vice President, and that his declining the office when it was not offered him, was meant to promote his political prospects. The declination occurred during the San Domingo excitement, when the administration was thought to be unpopular, and was intended by Colfax as a cutting loose from Grant with the hope of making the Presidential nomination himself. It killed him politically, and the President has too much sense to die in that way.

THERE are indications of a lively battle in the Democratic State Convention, which meets to-day at Wilkesbarre. The Hon. Sam Randall has put on the war paint, and is present with a full force of Philadelphia braves, determined to make a gallant fight in behalf of the back pay steal. He voted eight times for that little bill, pocketed the money, and has the manliness to stand up to his record. He thoroughly despises such of the Democratic press as have been denouncing his course toward that bill, and commends the Democratic State organ, and other papers of that faith, who favor the salary grab. He proposes to make the recalcitrant journals eat their own words, and from present indications, is likely to do it. There will also be two delegations from this county, and there will be a lively fight. And all this, when there are no spoils within the reach of any but Mr Randall. We look for a sombre display of facial gloom, when the Convention is over.

THE Temperance Convention for this county was held yesterday, and a full ticket put in nomination. A somewhat lengthy platform was also adopted, the majority of which bear directly upon the liquor question. One, however, is devoted to the various issues of the day, thus placing the Temperance party along side the regular political organizations. The ticket selected is as follows:

President Judge District Court—Hon. Moses Hampton.
Associate Judge—John H. Bailey.
State Senate—James McCandless.
Assembly—First district, George Wilson; Second district, A. N. McGonnigle; Third district, D. J. Rogers, Jonathan Gallagher, of Allegheny, James Davis, John Moody, David N. White, of Sewickley.
Prothonotary—Wm. Swisshelm.
Treasurer—W. W. Greer, of Verona borough.
County Commissioners—Isaac Mills, of Braddocks, three years, and John Thompson, Sewickley, two years.
Jury Commissioner—Jos. Birmingham.
Director of the Poor—William Elliott, of Jefferson township.
Coroner—W. G. Warren.

IN ONE of the interviews, published by the New York Herald, relative to "Cæsarism," the opinion is expressed that the hope of a permanent, steady, reliable policy of Government, will have more to do in securing a third term for Grant than anything else. There is considerable force in this suggestion. Years ago, when efforts were being incessantly made in Congress to adjust the tariff to every interest of the country, a shrewd merchant remarked that the great need of business was a settled policy—one that might be depended on. Business can adjust itself to any scheme of laws that may be even moderately fair, but it needs a permanent system, one not subject to perpetual fluctuation. It is this that had much to do with the great success of the Republican party in the last Presidential election. The people, and particularly the business public, had come to understand that the President had a clearly defined financial policy, and that it was likely to remain undisturbed, so long as he might be continued in office. Hence they preferred him. How much force this fact may have in the years to come, when the next Presidential candidate is to be selected, remains to be seen. But it will not be strange if the people should prefer the certainty of business prosperity to the upholding of a mere precedent.

THE charges against Marshal Bazaine, which are soon to be tried, are: "First with having capitulated with the enemy and surrendered to him the fortress of Metz, of which he was the commander-in-chief, without having previously exhausted all means of defense. Second, with having in his capacity as chief of the army before Metz, in the open field, signed a capitulation, in consequence of which his troops were obliged to lay down their arms, and with not having done, before entering upon verbal or written negotiation, all that was prescribed to him to do by his duty and his honor." We have it from private sources, that General Sheridan, who was present at the battle of Gravelotte, which was fought by Bazaine before his surrender, regards it as a most brilliantly fought battle, so far as the French were concerned. The handling of the troops, the military manœuvres performed, the management of the battle, and its success, so far as skill and number could give success, were so admirable, that even King William applauded the skill of the Marshal, and the gallantry of the French troops. The Germans won that battle by the sheer force of numbers. The Crown Prince of Germany and other German officers have tendered their testimony in behalf of Bazaine. The truth simply is, that he fought the only brilliant battle of that unfortunate war. He is really a persecuted man.

COLONEL FORNEY, in the course of his somewhat lengthy but interesting reminiscences, associated with a notice of ex-Governor Curtin, refers to the calmness with which heated political controversies are viewed in succeeding years, and the bravery often required in bearing up against popular heroes. Apropos of this, he says, "it is wholesome to reflect that party excitements, even the hatreds of civil war, inevitably perish with the generation and often with the decade they disturbed. If our tempests are not always in a teapot, they burn out or die out with amazing rapidity. What a fiery time that was when John Quincy Adams was made President by the vote of Kentucky! When Andrew Jackson roared, John Randolph challenged Henry Clay, and Geo. Kremer cried aloud and spared not! Parties dissolved into thin air. Thousands of Federalists went over to the Democrats. Headed by James Buchanan, Pennsylvania wheeled into line in 1828, and gave Andrew Jackson fifty thousand of a majority. John Sergeant, of Philadelphia, ran against Gov. Shultze when the latter was a candidate for re-election, in 1825, and got but one thousand votes to about seventy-two thousand for his competitor. There were only three Federal newspapers in Pennsylvania that withstood the Jackson whirlwind—the Philadelphia United States Gazette, the West Chester Village Record, and the Pittsburgh GAZETTE. The Jackson Federalists were taunted with having turned their coats, and they heartily swore they were not Democrats, only Jackson men." It is agreeable to be reminded of commendable deeds, performed in the remote past.

CITY BUSINESS.

As we approach the close of Summer there is a perceptible increase in business activity, which gives promise of a good Fall trade. In the various lines of manufacture the Summer has been a season of unusual dullness, the causes, however, in each particular case being, it is thought, temporary. The price of iron had advanced to a figure that seemed to occasion a temporary withholding of orders, and with the decline in prices a hesitancy was apparent on the part of purchasers—the fear apparently being that prices would further decline. This hope has not been realized, and the prospect now is, that there will be an advance in prices very soon. Strange to say, the season of dullness has not exerted a depressing influence on the minds of our manufacturers. Many have taken advantage of it to make needed repairs in their mills, and to prepare for increased efficiency in manufacturing when the active season sets in.

Pittsburgh is possessed of peculiarities, which serve to keep up some form of business activity during the entire year. In the Summer, of late years, gigantic real estate operations have been on hand, and when other forms of business have been sluggish, there has been activity in this direction. The steady and rapid growth of the city, in population and wealth, has served to give special prominence to these movements. Workingmen and small capitalists, confident of a permanent income, in their several avocations, have been ready to purchase land and to build homes. Capitalists have availed themselves of this condition of things to use the means at command to purchase large tracts of land, when availably located, and to put them on the market in small plots. Thus even in the idle season, so far as manufacturing and general business is concerned, our banks are usually able to loan their available funds, and keep their money remuneratively active. As a result of this, banking is generally prosperous in this city. Our banks very generally declare dividends of five per cent. half yearly, some reaching up to six and seven per cent.—equivalent to from twelve to fourteen per cent. a year.

The peculiar topography of the country around Pittsburgh, and the rapid growth of the city, with its prospective increase, have tended to give values to land that would be regarded as fabulous in Eastern cities. The increase in values began with the war, which, by the stimulus it gave to our manufactures, added very greatly to the wealth and growth of the city. At a distance of several miles from the city proper, land is sold at from $10,000 to $20,000 per acre, and this price can be commanded for considerable tracts. Eligible plots are very rapidly taken up at the prices we have named. Strangers coming here are apt to imagine that prices are "ballooned," and that there must be a reaction,—but for several years past they have steadily advanced, and now real estate is held firmly at the advanced rates. The basis of this strength is the confidence entertained in the future of the city. It is believed here, that in population, business activity, and all the essentials of prosperity, the city has only begun to grow; and that the next two decades will add very greatly to its population and wealth.

What has seemed to us, however, to be a danger, is the increase of taxes that must follow the extensive improvements in progress. True, it is difficult to point to any one of them, and say it it is not needed; yet there is little doubt that there should be a wise conservatism exercised. New Orleans is an illustration of the effect of oppressive debt on the credit and prosperity of a city. There taxation is driving population away. Our prosperity will naturally be a counterpoise to all this; and should our population increase in the ratio anticipated, there will be no burden resulting from the rapidity with which improvements are being made. We incline, however, to a conservative view, for the reason that with the increase of population, many of the projected improvements can be carried forward. But it is not to be doubted that every circumstance around us serves to promise for the city one of the grandest business futures of any city in the country.

A FEARFUL tragedy was enacted on Saturday, near Newtown, fourteen miles southeast of Quincy, in Iowa. James Hancock, a well-to-do farmer, after cutting the throat of his deceased wife from ear to ear, procured a rope, and going to the upper floor of the house, looped it around his neck and threw himself out of the window. When discovered both had been dead some time. The couple were old residents of that county, in good circumstances, and about sixty years of age.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

TREASURER RIDDLE, of Jefferson county, Kan., has disappeared with $70,000, and the officials offer a reward for any one who can give him up.

THE editor of the Baltimore Gazette, after years of experience, says: "A woman is like tar; only melt her, and she will take any form you please."

THE next Mardi Gras carnival at New Orleans is to be conducted on a much grander and more brilliant scale than ever before, and the festivities will continue two days.

IOWA papers tell the story of Byron Wright, who was pitched from his wagon a few days since, and so severely wounded in the head that the attending doctors extracted therefrom a bullet that was lodged in his brain last winter.

THE late storms have done what human efforts could never do—they've actually rendered a portion of New Jersey's shore useful for some earthly purpose, by washing away 1,000,000 cubic yards of it and making a good bathing beach thereof.

VERMONT has still some of the pleasing primeval traits. A Mr. Hazeltine of Wolcott, Lamoille county, while driving home in the evening, was attacked by a ferocious catamount. He wasn't much scratched, but his thumb was torn open before he could escape.

THE authorities of Jacksonville, Illinois, having prohibited the sale of fruit and vegetables, five of the leading doctors of the city have published a protest against the policy. They approve the confiscation of unripe fruit and stale vegetables, but not those which are ripe and fresh.

ALL work upon Mr. A. T. Stewart's vast hotel for women, on Fourth avenue, New York, has been suspended for some time. It is said the men refuse to work more than eight hours, while Mr. Stewart insists upon ten hours for a day's work, the same as he requires from those employed in his stores.

A NEW and cruel invention is the introduction of living butterflies into the centre pieces of flowers, which usually adorn the middle of the table at fashionable dinner and supper parties. The poor insects are fastened by a fine wire, which is passed through their bodies, and concealed among the flowers.

A CIVIL SUIT, brought by a widow to recover damages from the alleged murderer of her husband, is something new. Such a case has occurred in Kentucky. Mary Ellen Burns has entered suit against a wealthy citizen, one Benjamin Osborne, for killing her husband, laying her damages at ten thousand dollars.

THE citizens of Fulton, Mo., held a meeting on Monday, at which resolutions were adopted strongly condemning mob law and in favor of bringing all those who were engaged in lynching Peter Kessler to justice, and that all law abiding citizens should assist the officers of the law in ferreting out the guilty parties.

AMONG the curious epitaphs in the old Ganby burial ground in Baltimore is the following on the tomb of Sarah Terry, who "died in 1816, in her sixteenth year:"

"Sarah Terry was my name,
America was my nation;
Fell's Point was my dwelling place,
And Christ is my salvation."

THE old Bonaparte place at Bordentown, once one of the most delightful—kept up by the splendors inaugurated there forty years ago by ex-King of Spain, Joseph Bonaparte, is now going to decay. Since the death of Mr. Beeket, who purchased it several years ago, it has been suffered to go down. The fence that enclosed the spacious deer park, the beautiful walks and lawns, are all broken and overgrown.

JOHN CHILDERS, the first Indian ever hanged for murder in Arkansas, was executed at Fort Smith on the 15th of this month for the killing of Reyburn Wedding in 1870. The reason of the murder was that he had had a quarrel with a man from his victim's State. He died stolidly; smoked his cigar, and, after the manner of desperadoes brought to the scaffold, forgave everybody and hoped to be forgiven.

PERHAPS the end sanctifies the means; but when the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railway breaks through its usual Sabbatarian rule by running Sunday trains to the Twin Mountain House only during the Rev. H. W. Beecher's stay there, in order to carry amusement seekers who wish to hear that eminent divine preach, the deserted clergymen of the surrounding districts think it might as well be opera bouffe or a moral circus.—N. Y. World.

THE men run over by the train on the Toledo, Peoria and Warsaw Railroad near Blandinsville, Illinois, on Monday, were named Palmer and Prisrods, and were citizens of Blandinsville. The bodies were taken to Blandinsville, where an inquest was held. The verdict of the Coroner's jury was that they had been murdered by parties unknown, and placed on the track to conceal their crime. Several bullet holes were found in their bodies.

AT San Jose, Orien Dubois has had in his employ a Chinese cook, a young man, who fell in love with his daughter Alice, seventeen years of age. His passion was not reciprocated. The Chinaman obtained her photograph. She demanded its return and he gave back the picture, and at the same time fired three shots, but her steel corsets turned the bullets. The girl ran out and the Chinaman blew out his own brains. The girl was not hurt.

FOR A couple of weeks past the people of Kenduskeag, Me., have been agitated by the mysterious movements of a well-dressed man who has been wandering about the fields and woods near the town. This personage never goes upon the public road, it is said, but crosses from wood to wood across the fields. Occasionally a person unknown to all visits him, and gives him a change of clothing. The mystery has become so harrassing to the people of Kenduskeag that the town Selectmen are going to investigate the matter.

IN a recent breach of promise case in England, the defendant, who had what Mr. Sam Weller styled "a priorary attachment" with whom he was "off," pleaded that his suit to the plaintiff was "conditional." He intended to marry the plaintiff, but the lady who held the first mortgage foreclosed on him, and he was obliged to marry her. Plaintiff denied that there was any "condition" in the matter. The jury sustained her, and gave her a verdict of five hundred dollars. Not a very large sum; but as it was the penalty paid for bringing the first love to terms, the defendant will probably find that it was enough.

A CORRESPONDENT of an English rural paper relates a case from his experience which may be useful to other bee fanciers. Taking possession of new premises, he placed his bee shed where it would be least in the way of his alterations and improvements. But he soon found that he could no longer go among the bees with impunity. They became unaccustomed to seeing human beings, "and relapsed into the condition of savages." Thus it appears that the folks who keep bees must place them where they become accustomed to people passing and repassing; while those who hide them away as creatures unworthy of their confidence will "find them a little difficult to manage."

IF you have been pickling or handling any acid fruit and have stained your hands, wash them in clear water, wipe them lightly, and while they are yet moist, strike a match and shut your hands around it so as to catch the smoke, and the stains will disappear. If you have stained your muslin or gingham dress, or your white pants with berries, before wetting with anything else, pour boiling water through the stains and they will disappear. Before fruit juice dries it can often be removed by cold water, using a sponge and towel if necessary. Rubbing the fingers with the inside of the parings of apples will remove most of the stain caused by paring. Ink also, if washed out or sopped up from the carpet with cold water immediately when it is spilled, can be almost entirely removed. Ink spots on floors can be extracted by scouring with sand, wetted in oil of vitriol and water. When the ink is removed, rinse with strong pearlash water.

POLITICAL NOTES.

THE Democrats of San Francisco have not yet succeeded in harmonizing on a Legislative ticket.

THE Washington Republican avers that Reuben E. Fenton, the "eminent Liberal Republican reformer," is endeavoring to get back into the Republican party.

THE Hon. Wm. Allen, Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, will open campaign with a speech at Columbus on Friday, August 29th.

MR. T. R. ALLEN, Master of the State Grange of Missouri, reports that there are now 500 Granges in that State, with an average membership of seventy-five. He calculates that before next Spring there will be 10,000 Grangers enrolled in the State.

LAST week the Germans of Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon and Westmoreland counties met in mass convention at Summit, Cambria county, to protest against the Local Option law. There were about three thousand persons present. After a season of enjoyment the assembly was called to order, and, after discussion, a resolution was adopted unanimously, which provides that no German of the counties represented shall vote at the next election for any candidate who does not favor the repeal of the existing Local Option law.

SOME interest is already expressed in Washington concerning the organization of the House of Representatives. Gentlemen who have given the subject consideration say there seems to be no contest in regard to the re-election of Blaine as Speaker, McPherson Clerk, and Buxton as Doorkeeper. It is not certain that Mr. King will be a candidate for re-election as Postmaster. The most serious opposition will be against Ordway for Sergeant-at-Arms, arising from local causes in Washington, but his friends nevertheless assert that he will be successful in his canvass.

PERSONAL.

MR. FREDERICK DOUGLASS will deliver the address at the dedication of the soldiers' monument at Lynn, Massachusetts, in September.

MR. KELLY's big dog the Paris American Register believes to have been the first cause of Caleb Cushing's invective against Chief Justice Cockburn.

DR. J. B. CHASE, of Taunton, Mass., is gone to England at the expense of his numerous namesakes, on a wild goose chase after that hypothetical inheritance.

SYLVANUS COBB is said to sleep fourteen hours a day. A petition is being numerously signed requesting him to increase his diurnal somnolence by just ten hours.

MISS ADELAIDE PHILLIPS, who has recently arrived in England, is going to the Pyrenees in company with Miss Kate Field. Miss Field is at present the guest of Lady Dilke.

MRS. SARAH F. WRIGHT, of Hartford, Conn., who died last week, left $5,000 to the Home Missionary Society and $5,000 each to five philanthropical institutions of that city.

KING LOUIS of Bavaria is becoming anti-Jesuitical. He recently refused to receive a deputation of Ultramontanes, who wished to present a petition against the extension of the anti-Jesuit law.

THE Prince of Wales acted as chief mourner at the funeral of the late Duchess of Inverness, and the Dukes of Edinburgh and Cambridge were also among those who followed the remains to the grave.

THE great-grandfather, grandfather and uncle of Miss Jennie Burnham, who was drowned in Grand Bay, at Newmarket, N. H., were drowned in the same bay, within a mile of where her body was found.

S. WELLS WILLIAMS, the oldest inhabitant among the foreigners in China, and Secretary of the United States Legation, has just finished his Dictionary of the Chinese language. It is the result of forty years' labor and contains explanations of 12,500 Chinese characters.

MR. GERARD STURT, M. P., says that since their defeat on the Irish University Educational Bill, the members of Her Majesty's Government have sat "on the Treasury Benches with their hands on their breasts, looking as if they were a lot of beaten gamecocks without a single peck left in them."

GOVERNOR SEYMOUR has been invited to deliver the address on the occasion of the New York State Fair, and his acceptance of the invitation is announced. The address will be delivered on the 24th of September. The President of the Agricultural Society has likewise requested President Grant to be present during the Fair, and has assurances that he will comply with the request.

MISS CECILIA P. CLEVEAND, daughter of Mr. Greeley's sister, Mrs. John F. Cleveland, has been spending the Summer on a book to be entitled "Journal Leaves from Chappaqua." It is to contain personal reminiscences, sketches, and other material concerning Mr. Greeley, as well as other members of the family. It is to be issued early in the Autumn, and may be confidently looked to as among the most graceful and attractive works of the season.

FROM the top of Kearsarge Mountain, in New Hampshire, may be seen the birthplaces of Ezekiel and Danial Webster, William Pitt Fessenden, Governor John Dix, Vice President Henry A. Wilson, Lewis Cass, ex-United States Senator Jas. W. Grimes, of Iowa; United States Senator Zachariah Chandler, of Michigan; Levi Woodbury, Horace Greeley, General Benjamin F. Butler, ex-President Franklin Pierce and Chief Justice Chase.

DON CARLOS of Bourbon and Este, the present pretender to the throne of Spain, was born at Laybach, in Austria, March 30, 1848. His father, Don Juan, was the second of the three sons of Charles V. Don Juan succeeded his brother, Charles VI., on the throne, but abdicated in 1868 in favor of his son, Don Carlos. The mother of Don Carlos was the Princess Mary Beatrix, daughter of Francis IV., Grand Duke of Tuscany, and a sister of the Countess de Chambord. Don Carlos is nearly six feet in height, and of prepossessing appearance. In 1857 he married the Princess Margarita of Bourbon, daughter of the former Duchess of Parma. Three children have blessed their union, the second of which is a boy. He was born in June, 1870, and has the title of Prince of Asturias.

DR. BENDER'S TROUBLE.

Too Much Professional Enthusiasm.

The trouble with Dr. Lucullus P. Bender was, that he had entirely too much professional enthusiasm. He was a man of an inventive turn of mind, and after years of thought and experiment he produced an "improved stomach pump," which included a "reversible combination valve" of what the Doctor conceived to be extraordinary effectiveness. When the working model was completed the Doctor was very anxious to prove its value, and he asked a number of medical gentlemen around to his house to spend the evening and examine the machine. When the ice cream was handed around the Doctor introduced certain potent drugs into Mrs. Bender's plateful, and also into that which was handed to his aunt. Then in an exulting whisper he told his professional friends to watch Mrs. Bender and his aunt carefully for a few moments, and not to be alarmed at anything that occurred. The Doctor intended to permit Mrs. Bender and his aunt to work along toward a crisis, then suddenly to introduce the improved stomach pump, and at once relieve the situation. Presently Mrs. Bender said she felt giddy, trembled and fell on the floor and began to foam at the mouth, while the aunt uttered one wild, unearthly yell, and rolled over with her left gaiter projecting into the grate. Bender's eyes sparkled with joy, and he began to feel for the improved stomach pump. It was gone. Bender's aunt, supposing it was a new arrangement gotten up by one of the boys for tormenting her cat, had hid it in the pantry. The Doctor was nearly crazy, and while he hunted for the machine Mrs. Bender rolled over and over on the floor and howled, while the aunt had a fresh paroxysm every minute and was kicking over the tables and chairs in a most alarming manner. Then Bender found the pump and applied it once to Mrs. Bender, but at the first jerk at the handle one of the reversible combination valves broke, and Mrs. Bender started off into more violent convulsions, and went pitching under the sofa, against the piano-legs and into the entry with frightful contortions of her body, while Bender's aunt lay up close to the washboard emitting a few feeble moans and getting blue about the lips. Then all the doctors turned in and they poured mustard and warm water and white of eggs into Mrs. Bender and the aunt, and Bender took his aunt by the heels and shook her out over the porch until she lost her teeth and her supper, and had an attack of apoplexy. They both came to about midnight, and were sick in bed for two months, but when the brother of Bender's aunt heard about it he suspected foul play, and had Bender indicted for attempted murder, and convicted him. He was pardoned by the Governor after being in jail three months, and then he came home just as Mrs. Bender and his aunt recovered sufficient strength to make things warm and sociable and sensational for him. Anybody who wishes to buy the patent-right of an improved stomach pump with reversible combination valves will hear of something to his advantage by dropping a line to Dr. Bender. He is anxious to close out.—Max Edeler.

Anthracite Coal.

The total of anthracite coal marketed for the week ending on the 16th inst. amounted to 436,372 tons, and for the coal year 11,873,016 tons, against 11,622,151 tons to corresponding time last year, being an increase of 250,865 tons. The bituminous tonnage for the week is 67,979 tons, and for the year 1,931,052 tons, giving a total of all kinds for the week of 504,351 tons, and for the year of 13,804,068 tons, against 13,336,070 to the same time last year, being an increase of 467,098 tons. At Port Richmond for the week ending with the 23d instant the receipts of coal were 55,000 tons, the shipments 61,000 tons, leaving 85,000 tons on hand. Vessels are reported rather scarce and freights firm and unchanged at $1,35 to New York, $2 to Providence, and $2,40 to Boston.—Phila. Ledger.

The Word "its" in the Bible.

It seems, after all, that the word "its" does not appear in the early editions of the Bible, even in the solitary instance where it now appears in the more modern copies. In referring to the subject a day or two ago, it was suggested that the earliest printed editions of the English Bible should be referred to; and "J. G. B.," who has done this, writes us as follows: "Archbishop Trench is correct in his assertion that the word its does not occur in the authorized version of the Bible. In the passage cited [Leviticus, xxv chapter 5th verse] the word its is printed 'it' in the early editions. I have examined the octavo edition of 1632, one of the early editions of King James' version, and find: 'That which groweth of it own accord.' To modern ears this expression has a harsh sound, but its use is common with all the early English writers. The duodecimo edition of 1638 also has the word "it" in the same passage. So early as 1717, and perhaps earlier, it had become altered by printers or other unauthorized persons, as in Baskett's folio edition of that year, his quarto of 1736, and later issues the changed form is used." "I. M." also writes that he finds in the copy of the edition of 1613, now in the Masonic Temple, that the passage reads thus: "That which groweth of it own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reape," &c. "W. G. M." cites the same edition to the same purpose. The latter also refers to a Bible published by Christopher Barker, in 1582, and quotes the passage as therein printed as follows: "That which groweth of it oune accorde of thy harvest thou shalt not reape." He adds that in "the earlier English of Wyckliffe (circa 1380) the prohibition has this form: 'Thingis that the erthe frely bryngith forth thow shalt not reepe.'"—Philadelphia Ledger.

CORNS.

The surest cure that has ever been discovered for these tormentors of the feet, is in the Genuine Corn Solvent, which is made by Robinson, of London. It is entirely painless in its application, when the directions are observed, and no one need be plagued with corns, warts or excrescences of any kind on the hands or feet when supplied with one of ROBINSON'S PATENT CORN PENCILS. The cost of the genuine is fifty cents, or sent by mail for sixty cents. They may be obtained in any quantity at KEYSER'S, 167 Liberty street.

SAPOLIO
is a substitute for Soap for all Household purposes, except washing clothes.

SAPOLIO
for Cleaning your House will save the labor of one cleaner. Give it a trial.

SAPOLIO
for Windows is better than Whiting or Water. No removing curtains and carpets.

SAPOLIO
cleans Paint and Wood, in fact the entire house, better than Soap. No slopping. Saves labor. You can't afford to be without it.

SAPOLIO
for Scouring Knives is better and cleaner than Bath Brick. Will not scratch.

SAPOLIO
is better than Soap and Sand for polishing Tinware. Brightens without scratching.

SAPOLIO
Polishes Brass and Copper utensils better than Acid or Oil and Rotten Stone.

SAPOLIO
for Washing Dishes and Glassware is invaluable. Cheaper than Soap.

SAPOLIO
removes Stains from Marble Mantles, Tables and Statuary, from Hard-finished Walls, and from China and Porcelain.

SAPOLIO
removes Stains and Grease from Carpets and other woven fabrics.

There is no one article known that will do so many kinds of work and do it as well as Sapolio. Try it.

HAND SAPOLIO
a new and wonderful effective Toilet Soap, having no equal in this country or abroad.

HAND SAPOLIO
as an article for the Bath, "reaches the foundation" of all dirt, opens the pores and gives a healthy action and brilliant tint to the skin.

HAND SAPOLIO
Cleanses and Beautifies the Skin, instantly removing any stain or blemish from both hands and face.

HAND SAPOLIO
is without a rival in the world for curing or preventing roughness and chapping of either hands or face.

HAND SAPOLIO
removes Tar, Pitch, Iron or Ink Stains and Grease; for workers in Machine Shops, Mines, &c., is invaluable. For making the Skin White and soft, and giving to it a "bloom of beauty," it is unsurpassed by any Cosmetic known.

HAND SAPOLIO
costs 10 to 15 cents per cake, and everybody should have it. You will like it.

DON'T FAIL TO TRY THESE GOODS.
Buy it of your merchant if he has it, or will procure it for you. If not, then write for our Pamphlet, "All about Sapolio," and it will be mailed free.

Speedily Cured.—All Forms of Venereal, Private and Nervous disease at the old established Girard Medical Institute, No. 172 Second avenue, between Smithfield and Grant streets, Pittsburgh, Pa.
NO CHARGE UNTIL CURED.
Syphilis, Stricture, Orchitis, Hernia and all Urinary diseases are cured in the shortest possible time that will insure permanent relief. Spermatorrhea, or Seminal weakness and Impotency, as the result of self-abuse or excess in maturer years, and which produce some of the following effects, as emissions, blotches, debility, dizziness, nervousness, dimness of sight, cough, indigestion, constipation, despondency, confusion of ideas, aversion to society, loss of memory, and sexual power, and which unfits the victim for business or marriage, and ultimately causing insanity and consumption, are thoroughly and permanently cured. Medicines supplied at the Institute. A medical pamphlet relating to private diseases sent in sealed envelope for two stamps. All communications confidential.
This Institute was established for the express purpose of supplying the afflicted with scientific and reliable treatment, and is not to be classed with the numerous quacks and impostors that infest all large cities. The proprietors have made the treatment of Private and special diseases the study of their lives, and can refer to thousands all over the country that have been benefitted and cured by their treatment. No matter how difficult or long standing your case may be, if curable, after a personal examination they will frankly tell you; remember, they have cured many cases given up by other physicians.
Patients treated by mail or express, but where possible, it is best to visit the city for personal consultation, or address:
GIRARD MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
No. 172 Second avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa. Office hours 9 A. M. to 7 P. M. Sundays by appointment.

DR. WHITTIER,
No. 296 PENN STREET, Pittsburgh, Pa.
A regular graduate of Medicine, as his Diploma at office shows, has been longer engaged in the treatment of Venereal, Sexual and Private Diseases than any other Physician in Pittsburgh.
Syphilis, Stricture, Orchitis, all forms of Hernia and Rupture, all Urinary Diseases, and Syphilitic or Mercurial Affections of the Throat, Skin or Bones are treated with unparalleled success.
Spermatorrhœa, Sexual Debility and Impotency, the result of self-abuse in youth, sexual excesses in maturer years, or other causes which produce some of the following effects, viz.: Nervousness, debility, blotches, dizziness, dimness of sight, confusion of ideas, evil forebodings, aversion to society, loss of memory and sexual power, rendering marriage improper and life miserable, are permanently cured. Sealed pamphlet relating to the above sent for two stamps. Correspondence confidential; consultation free. It is self-evident that a physician who treats thousands of cases every year must acquire great skill; many Physicians knowing this, recommend patients to his care. Medicine sent everywhere.
Office hours 9 A. M., to 9 P. M. Sundays, 1 to 3 P. M.
MANHOOD! WOMANHOOD!
"Books for the million!" Who may marry, who not, Why? Impediments, causes and cure. Every father, mother, young man and young woman should read them. 100 pages. Sent in SEALED ENVELOPE, 15 cents each. Both for 25 cents.

DAILY GAZETTE.

FINANCIAL.

OFFICE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, August 26, 1873.

There is no active change of moment in the condition of the Pittsburgh money market, and nothing particularly noticeable in the inquiry for loanable funds. It was pretty much the same as it has been for weeks past, with but little call from speculative borrowers, but was confined almost exclusively to the legitimate channels of trade. The market continues to be well supplied with money, and rates rule steady at 8@10 per cent. per annum for first-class paper.

Real estate matters hereabouts are becoming more active. We have learned of quite a number of sales recently, at prices fully as high as at the commencement of the season. A. J. Pentecost, Esq., the popular auctioneer, yesterday sold the balance of the Poor Farm lots, in the borough of Millvale, at Bennett's station, netting $50,000, at prices ranging higher than the last sale at the same place.

NEW YORK, August 26, 1874.

There has been an active trade in money today, and the efforts of the bulls in gold to create a monetary stringency seems to be partially successful. The rate was advanced to 7 currency and 7 gold, but at the close it broke down to 3 per cent. At the time money advanced to 7 per cent. a vigorous attack was made upon the leading stock to enable the shorts to cover. The Post says: "If this is the beginning of a policy to harrass the money market during the autumn so as to distress trade and borrowers, extraordinary measures will be taken by the United States Treasury to defeat the scheme." Sterling was a little firmer at 107⅝@107⅞ for sixty days and 108⅜@108¼ for sight. The customs receipts to-day were $686,000. Gold was lower, ranging from 115⅜ to 115⅜, closing at the latter figure. Loans were 2@4 per cent. to flat for carrying. Clearings $43,000,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $477,000. Governments were dull. State bonds were quiet. Stocks were irregular, but in the main were weak and lower. The volume of business, except in Pacific Mail, Western Union, Wabash, and Union Pacific, was very moderate. Hannibal & St. Joseph common was hammered down from 37⅜ to 36, but the remainder of the list showed changes of only ⅛ to ⅜ per cent., with the exception of those stocks previously named. At the close a steadier feeling prevailed. The Wabash books for the annual election will probably close in a short time, and to day the stock was worth ⅛ per cent. for ten days, while there was a decline of 2 per cent. in the market price. There is an active borrowing demand for stocks generally, and leading shares are loaning at 5 per cent. to flat. F. Alexander was to-day elected director of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company in place of George Palmer, resigned. The total exports of produce at this port for the week ending to day were $5,281,459.

BALTIMORE.—The Gazette says money has been hard to obtain on any but short loans, or for 30 to 60 day paper. Our market has been flooded with large offerings from New York at high figures considering the time of year. The New York brokers having been caught with large lines of paper taken at low rates, and being surprised by an advancing market, are endeavoring to unload here and elsewhere. The sales of this sort of security have been smaller than last spring, and our buyers show wisdom in avoiding it. Home paper has not been very plentiful, but still there has been a fair amount of it on the street. We quote 1st Indorsed 7@7½; 1st Rediscounts 8, 2d 8½@9; 1st Grocery 8@9, 2d 10@12; 1st Dry Goods 8@9, 2d 10@12; Boots and Shoes 8@18; Clothing 12@24, and mixed 8@18. Call money loaned on first class collaterals at 6@7; and for 30 to 60 days at 7½@9. Baltimore and Ohio Railroad stock is wanted at 165.

ST. LOUIS.—The Democrat quotes the market as growing gradually closer, but the condition of the market is only temporary, as the money now being sent out into the country will, in the course of a few weeks, find its way back here in the regular course of trade, and will tend to relieve the market during the active Fall season. Rates continue steady at 8 to 10 per cent., but the latter is the ruling figure just now.

CINCINNATI.—The Gazette has the following: The demand for discounts was a little better in some quarters, but the market was easy at 8@9 per cent. for sixty days' paper. In the open market there was not much prime paper offered, but there was more disposition on the part of lenders to insist on shorter paper, and it is difficult to place longer than sixty days at 8 per cent., and 3@4 four months is rated at 9.

CHICAGO.—In regard to financial matters the Tribune says the abrupt change from the dullness of ten days ago is the subject of general remark, and has imparted a more cheerful tone to the views and expressions of bankers and merchants regarding the prospects for a profitable fall trade and a prosperous year, as the result of the abundant crops. Money is plenty yet in this market, and, though most of the banks specify 10 per cent., some are offering money at 8 per cent., on either prime collaterals or business paper, for 60 days. The demand from the country for currency continues large, and obliges banks with large country accounts to both order currency from New York and sell exchange at a heavy discount. Sales were made between banks to day at $1.25 per $1,000 discount, though $1 per $1,000 was the prevailing rate.

PHILADELPHIA.—The demand for money, says the Ledger, is reported fairly active, without any pressure, rates ruling nearly stationary at 5@6 per cent. on call. First-class double name paper, running sixty days, is reported steady at 7½@8 per cent. and running four months at 8 per cent. Paper on collateral of high grades, running three to four months, 7½ to 8 per cent. Single name paper is slow of sale.

COMMERCIAL.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, August 26, 1873.

Trade generally was reported quiet to day, and in a general way the market presented nothing particularly new or important; the demand for the leading staples was apparently less active, although there was no doubt a fair volume of business in the aggregate; while as regards prices, there were no important changes. The indications, however, are generally regarded as being favorable for an average fall trade, and our merchants and manufacturers are prepared to meet it.

BUTTER.—The supply of choice butter is very limited, unequal to the demand, and it may be fairly quoted at 25; medium to good, 20@23. There is very little inquiry for any but choice, hence, low grade butter is dull and is likely to continue so. Commission merchants report that it is unusual for choice butter to be scarce at this season of the year, and they are unable to account for it.

CHEESE.—The arrivals seem to be slacking off again, but the supply is equal to the demand, and prices remain unchanged; prime Ohio Factory, 13c for round lots, and 14 in a jobbing way. Low grade cheese is dull. Ohio Sweitzer is still quoted at 15@17.

EGGS.—The market is generally reported quiet and notwithstanding the receipts are by no means large, the supply is fully up to the demand and prices are without quotable change, ranging from 14@16, as to quality and condition. The great bulk of the supply in this market just now is in bad condition.

FRUITS.—Apples in good supply, and may be quoted at $2,50@3,50 per brl., according to quality. Peaches, $2,50@3 ₩ box. Plums, $3,50@4 ₩ bushel. Black berries and Whortle berries, $1,50 ₩ pail. Watermelons, $10@20 ₩ 100, according to size and quality.

FLOUR.—The market, especially for spring wheat flours, is very irregular, and it is difficult to quote correctly: choice Minnesotas were advanced to $7.75 a few days since, but some dealers are reported as selling at $7.50, which, at least so we are informed, barely covers cost laid down at the depot here. New winters are selling at $7 75 to $8, and choice old stock at $8½.

GRAIN.—There is still a fair demand for Wheat and about all that offers finds buyers within the range of quotations. $1.45@1.50 for new red winter, as to quality. While we were reported a sale to day at $1.50, yet it is said that there is little good enough either in point of quality or condition to command this figure. Old stock, to use a common phrase, is about played out. The Oat market is generally reported dull, and prices are very irregular, ranging all the way from 38@42, according to quality. New crop is offering pretty freely, and it is said, is better than usual in quality. Corn, both shelled and ear, is very scarce, remarkably so, and there is rather more inquiry, hence, the market is firmer although prices are not quotably higher, ranging from 56@58. There is no movement in Rye, and in the absence of sales we continue to quote at 80. The Barley market is very unsettled and considerably excited under the influence of the advices from Chicago, where it is being manipulated by speculators. No. 2 is bringing nearly double what it brought at this time last year, hence, our brewers are disposed, as they can see no good cause for such a sharp advance, to hold off and wait for the market to become more settled. There was little or no Barley grown in this section of the country this year, and consumers will have will have to draw their supplies from the west and Canada.

GROCERIES.—Coffee continues very firm and with a brisk demand, and very light stocks, both in first and second second hands, prices are still tending upward. Sugars are also quoted firmer, but prices remain unchanged. Orleans Molasses and Syrups are also firm and in limited supply.

HAY.—Continues dull, but prices are nominally unchanged; baled, on wharf and track, $20@25. Loose, from country wagons $18@27, according to condition and quality.

ONIONS.—Continue dull, and prices have further declined; $4@4.50 per barrel.

POTATOES.—In good supply and dull, and the tendency is still downward: 80@85c ₩ bushel on track, and 95@$1 for small lots out of store.

POULTRY.—Spring chickens are quotable all the way from 40@60 cents per pair, according to size; and old ones, 70@80.

PROVISIONS.—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, ₩ lb. 16½. Ex. Sugar Cured Shoulders, 11½; Sugar cured Breakfast Bacon, 13½c. Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, 19½. Beef tongues, $7,50 ₩ dozen. Bacon Shoulders, per lb, 10c. Bacon Rib Sides, 10½c. Bacon Short Rib Sides 11½c. Bacon Clear Rib Sides, 11½c. Mess Pork, $18.00 per barrel. Refined Lard for summer use, in tres, 9½. Do. half bbls, 10½c. Do. bkts. 11c. Do. in 3 lb. caddies, 12½c. Do in 5 lb. 12½c; do. in 3 lb. pails 13½c: ₩ pound. Do. in 6 lb pails, 13. 5 lb. pails, 13½. Prime Leaf Lard in Tres, 9½c.

RAGS.—Quoted at 3½@3½c.

SALT.—Is quoted at $1,60 ₩ brl. by the car load, and $1,85 in a jobbing way.

TALLOW.—Quoted at 7½@8c ₩ lb.

SEEDS.—Timothy Seed may be quoted at $3.50@3.50 ₩ bushel to the trade, and $3.75 in a small way. Flax Seed is still quoted at $1.80.

WHISKY.—Highwines remain unchanged at 90@$1 ₩ gallon.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, August 26, 1873.

The Crude market continues quiet, and presents no important features worthy of notice; the demand, it is fair to infer from the continued liberal receipts, is keeping up pretty well, and we presume that Cleveland and other consuming points are buying freely, hence, prices in the face of the steadily increasing production, are still maintained. We continue to quote at $1 10@1,35 ₩ brl. at Parker, equal to 4@4½c ₩ gallon delivered here. Refined is quiet and nominally unchanged at 13½ on cars here for western shipment; 16½@16½ for August or September, delivered in Philadelphia, and 16½ for October. The market for both Crude and Refined is holding up better than was generally expected, as some operators were predicting very recently that the former would decline to fifty cents per barrel.

Oil Barrels, if anything, are weaker in consequence of the expectation of increased receipts by river, but prices are still maintained; $2,20 for countries, and $2,30 for city make, delivered.

New York Breadstuffs Market.—Weekly Review.

NEW YORK, August 25—We have had a comparatively quiet and not very satisfactory Flour market, the arrivals have not been large of any particular grade, and with a moderate jobbing trade in old Winter and Fancy Spring Wheat brands, these have been sustained, while medium Spring extras are quite plenty and easier. The low grades of winter wheat extras have sold slowly, and in some cases to effect sales freely prices have been shaded. Shipping brands have been in demand for export and the trade, are not over plenty, and have ruled firm with considerable sales of Western Extras for September delivery at $6 75. State brands have been taken freely for the British Provinces and Great Britain, and full prices have been paid. No. 2 has been freely offered, and to sell them promptly afloat some decline has been submitted to, and the same is true of medium grades of Superfine. Fancy brands of Minnesota have ruled steady with a fair inquiry and reduced stock. Common brands have been difficult of sale, even at a decline of 15 to 25c ₩ brl. New Winter Wheat Extras have offered more freely, and those not too soft for present use have sold more readily at former prices, while unknown brands, fresh ground, have been difficult of sale, and only by submitting to lower figures, and in those we notice much irregularity in the sales, and in the new Flour thus far offered the quantity is almost invariably better than last year. This is very gratifying, as we can fill orders for any market and cannot fail to give satisfaction. The receipts of new Flour thus far have been light, much below the general expectation and we find our stock is much reduced, though ample of Spring Wheat Flours and large of No. 2 Common superfine; in City Ground Flour a fair business has been done at extreme prices, chiefly in the low grades of Extra; the absence of vessels suited to the West India and South America trade has prevented the filling of many orders, and the higher grades of City Ground Flour have been quiet; the relatively higher prices current for Wheat has prevented our millers operating to any advantage, and with limited receipts, the depletion in our stock has been large, and we estimate our stock about 175,000 brls: the exports of the week are 34,538 brls against 19,489 brls the corresponding week last year.

Since this day week we have had quite an active but variable Wheat market, the business largely for the future. Early in the week, with very limited arrivals, urgent buyers, more especially those who had freight engagements to fill, were compelled to pay higher prices, the favorable news from Europe, and very limited stock here, forcing up prices 3@4c ₩ bush. above our last quotations, most shippers have preferred fresh arrivals from the break in the canal, and since Tuesday have been able to purchase on much easier terms, though high prices have been maintained for future delivery. Within the past three weeks it is estimated that nearly 2,000,000 bushels of Milwaukee Wheat have been purchased for October delivery, and the freight room already engaged for it. This very large quantity of Wheat taken off the market promptly in former times would be of benefit to it, but unfortunately a large proportion of the freight room likely to be put in port during that month, and indeed for the month of November, has already been secured, so that there is little hope for low freights. Our surplus of Wheat is likely to be largely in excess of any previous estimates while we cannot count on more than a liberal supply of tonnage, hence the market is likely to be largely controlled by the shipping interest. Values entirely dependent upon or more or less under the control of ship owners. The new crop at the west is now moving rapidly, and the wants of farmers will compel many of them to sell promptly, and when the surplus is so large, we think all the facilities on the lakes and railways at the West will be taxed to their utmost to move the crop, hence this question of ocean freights is one of vastly greater importance than the public generally attached to it. The new crop has now been mainly secured, and the result is a yield largely in excess of any previous year, the yield per acre being 16 to 25 bush., the average not being far from 24 bush. to the acre, as far as reports have reached us, and the crop has been secured in splendid condition: and to this add the increased area under cultivation, and the result is exceedingly gratifying. Our advices from France are confirmatory of what we published more than a month since; it is very evident they must be large importers the coming year, instead of exporters, and the same is true of a portion of Germany and Belgium, and we think we are safe in saying that the crop in Europe is 15 per cent. below an average. This may be considered a large estimate, but we think it if not far from the actual state of things, and on further reflection we should be inclined to add to this estimate rather than reduce it. New Wheat has arrived slowly, and prices have slightly improved, with a good Continental demand for it, and quite a business has been done in it for September delivery at good prices; some 140,000 bush. New Amber, Indiana and Michigan have changed hands for that month, chiefly at $1.63½@1.65. Nothing has been done in White, and less of it is used by our millers than hitherto. In Old Winter very little has been done for want of assortment. The quantity of Wheat on the canal is about 850,000 bush., and the quantity on the lakes is moderate, but as thrashing at the West has become very general, we may soon look for large supplies there. The exports for the week have been 588,120 bush., against 113,487 bush. the corresponding week last year. We had quite a brisk demand for No. 3 and ungraded Spring up to Thursday, and a decided advance was established. Since then the inquiry has abated, and prices of all descriptions of Spring have declined and are unsettled. The receipts of Wheat from the South have been limited, prices there being relatively higher than here, and it is very evident that the movement in Winter Wheat will be much less than was anticipated early in the month, due in a great measure to the fact of farmers holding but one crop, and find a ready sale for it to supply local wants at very satisfactory prices.—Tribune.

American Competition in the Iron Trade.

An iron merchant, writing to the London Times, says: "I greatly fear that with every month's continuance of the present scale of prices our foreign competitors are gaining more and more strength to maintain the struggle for the trade of the world in iron, and we may find ourselves by and by to lament the folly, which, by forcing up prices to an unnatural level, has effectually alienated a trade, which we have always looked upon as our prescriptive right. The late high prices of iron have brought with them the most exorbitant demands from colliery owners and workmen, who, learning their power, are now loth to meet the altered state of things by abating one jot from their extravagant pretentions. My object in troubling you with this letter is solely to issue a solemn note of warning to the coal owners and workmen as to the probable consequences of a persistence in their present policy. Engaged in the iron trade as a merchant, and with connections nearly all over the world, I am in a position to know exactly what is going on, and I can most solemnly assert my belief that a very few months more of the present high prices of iron will have a most disastrous effect upon the foreign demand for all future time. The iron manufacturers are willing—nay anxious—to reduce prices, but they cannot afford to do so at the present of coal and labor. Are the coalowners prepared to sacrifice their best customers by demanding a price they can not afford to pay? It is pretty well understood that the colliery proprietors are realizing fabulous profits at the present time, and though I do not for a moment dispute their right to get the best price they can for their produce, I would yet beg them to consider whether their policy is wise, with a due regard to their own future interests."

RIVER NEWS.

The river rose several inches yesterday, with 4 feet 9 inches in the channel. The weather was cloudy and warm, with every indication of more rain. Business continues dull at the landing, but hopes of an early improvement are entertained.

The towboats Joseph A. Stone, Coal Valley, Wm. Stone, My Choice, arrived from Cincinnati, and the Lion and Lake Erie No. 3 are among the first boats due.

The Etna arrived from Cincinnati, with three barges containing 350 tons of pig iron and 115 tons of muck iron, the former for Loomis & Callard, and the latter for Graff, Bennett & Co.

The Juniata, from Cincinnati, will be due here about Friday, providing she has no bad luck.

—A Washington special to the Louisville Courier says: The Wawassette inquiry has been developing in a forcible manner the defects of the present law regulating the safety of passengers on steamers. The owners will be prosecuted for employing two officers without licenses, and it is admitted that the report of the Supervising Inspectors will recommend the revocation of the licenses of the officers who held such documents from the Government. It is also shown that there was criminal lack of discipline among the officers, who, instead of remaining at their posts, looked out for their safety leaving the helpless passengers including women and children, to save themselves as best they could. It is not decided whether any further action more than a mere mention of this state of affairs will be taken.

—A Cincinnati dispatch under date of Tuesday says: The Exchange, from Pittsburgh, arrived, and returns to morrow. The Juniata departed for Pittsburgh last night. The new canal locks of the Louisville and Portland canal are being hung, leaving the old canal only available for passage around the falls.... A. J. Fiesher, of Murraysville, bought the R R Skillinger of W. G. McCoy, for $15,500 cash, and afterwards sold two-thirds interest in her to J. T. Russell and James Robinson, of Wheeling, for $10,333.... Major A. J. M. Brown, an old river clerk, died, day before yesterday, of consumption, aged 47.

—Hanging up in the bar of the steamer Belle Memphis is a solid silver anchor, weighing 140 ounces, belonging to Mr. Joe C. Violett, the well known and popular druggist of the boat. It was made by Mr. Kirk Sharee, the engineer of the boat, and as a piece of fine workmanship cannot be excelled. He made it on the boat with hammer and file.

—Gasconade River in Missouri has been partially explored with a view to ascertain its navigability from some point inland to the Missouri. It is a beautiful stream and runs 100 miles or more through a continuous mineral section. There are 15 to 24 inches of water in the channel at the lowest stage, and a few improvements would give three or four feet in summer.

—The item going about concerning the death of John B. Sullivan, late clerk of the Belle Lee, from "remorseless disease, is an error. The young man of that name who died was not John S., of the Belle Lee, and nobody ever heard that he was sever afflicted with remorse.

—The St. Louis Democrat says: Captain Bill Patterson, mate, got back on Friday from his farm in Butler, Pa., and proposes to go on the river again rather than sell his farm for the petty sum of $75,000.

—The porter of the towboat Geo. Roberts, received $100 Saturday for recovering from the river at Evansville the body of Mr. Gumberts, who had been drowned.

—The John Kyle left New Orleans with 1,000 tons of freight, including 375 tons sugar and 3,670 sacks salt.

—The Davenport Gazette learns that the pilots in the upper river have concluded to continue at the wheel at $150 ₩ month.

European Steamship Arrivals Yesterday.

A dispatch received at Max Schamberg's European Steamship and Telegraph office, at No. 163 Smithfield street, announces the arrival of the National line steamer Canada at New York; Anchor line steamer Italia at New York.

A Successful Auctioneer.

Yesterday A. J. Pentecost, the popular auctioneer, sold the balance of the old Poor Farm property of the City of Allegheny. The sales netted sixty thousand dollars, and the prices ranged higher than at the previous sales at the same place.

Land Slide.

While a number of men were at work on Madison avenue, at the foot of Spring Hill, Allegheny, yesterday afternoon, about a half an acre of ground came down, and the men had a narrow escape for their lives. One man had his foot crushed. He was taken to his home on East street.

Leg Broken.

About three o'clock yesterday afternoon, a man named Henry Fink, while digging a cellar on Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny, in the rear of Lutz & Waltz's brewery, had his leg broken and was otherwise injured by the bank caving in on him. He was taken to his boarding house on O'Hara street.

Obituary.

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth J., wife of James Carothers, on Monday evening, at her residence in Florence, Washington county, is of especially melancholy interest. She was the eldest of three sisters of our townsman, Mr. James E. Burns, the druggist, who have died within the past year. She was a most estimable lady, whose untimely death will be felt as a sore affliction to her family, and mourned by a wide circle of friends.

State Agricultural Society.

The annual exhibition of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will be held at Erie on September 30, and October 1, 2 and 3. Liberal premiums are offered, ranging from $1 to $200. Chester county is represented in the list of Judges as follows: Grain and Seeds—David H. Branson, West Brandywine, (who is one of the Vice Presidents of the Society) Chairman; Thorough Bred Cattle—J. Lacey Darlington, West Chester; Native and Grade Cows—Evans Rogers, West Chester; Fine Bred Horses—E. B. Ashbridge, East Goshen; Poultry—J. D. Ashbridge, East Goshen; Threshing Machines and Horse Powers—Samuel Pennock, Kennett Square; Fruits—H. L. Brinton, Oxford; Fine Arts and Penmanship—John Hickman.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—The Wallace sisters continue to draw full houses, and their short season will prove eminently successful.

AIMS' AMERICAN THEATRE.—Frank Frayne, Mrs. Ruth, Harry McCarthy and the other artists give an entertainment that is well worthy of the large patronage they are receiving.

SELECT CONCERT.—To-morrow evening a select musical concert will be given at Excelsior Hall, Allegheny city, by the Amphion Quartette, assisted by Miss Lucy Linn, soprano, Miss May French, contralto, and Messrs. W. F. Gray and O. R. French. It will no doubt be a very delightful affair, and our readers who like anything of that kind may find pleasure in attending.

THE COURTS.

Yesterday's Proceedings.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

[Before Judge McCandless.]

In this Court, sitting in chambers, Thomas K. Wilson, of this city, creditor, filed a petition in bankruptcy against Lowry Childs, debtor, of Allegheny City.

Edward Roberts, of New Brighton, Pa., filed a petition for the adjudication in bankruptcy of himself, and the matter was referred to Register Knox, of Waynesburg.

Owen Cunningham, of Ebensburg, Cambria county, filed a similar petition in bankruptcy.

A TERRIBLE FALL.

A Workman Dangerously Injured.

Yesterday about noon, a man named James Taylor, employed by Messrs. Hartupee & Co., on the new engine now in course of erection at the water works in Allegheny, met with a probably fatal accident. He was on the immense fly wheel, at work on the cogs, when by some mischance he fell down into the pit below, a distance of some twenty-five feet, striking on a stone, crushing in the sternum or breast bone, and also inflicting other internal injuries. He was picked up and carried to a house near by and medical aid summoned. He was afterwards taken to his home on Robinson street.

ANOTHER EXPLOSION.

A Flash from a Still Sets Fire to a Receiving House.

Yesterday afternoon about two o'clock a flash from a tank at the Citizens Oil Refinery set fire to the receiving house, which caused an explosion in an instant. The walls facing the Allegheny Valley Railroad were torn away, and several freight cars that were standing on the track were stove in, and one of them was filled with the debris of the falling wall. One man had his arm badly burnt, and another was burned somewhat about the face by the explosion. The explosion was heard and felt for quite a distance. Several men had narrow escapes. The damage done was quite considerable. The Fire Department was not called out. The concern flooded their tanks and cooled them, and thus prevented a great conflagration.

A GRAND GRAB.

Raid This Morning—A Large Haul Made—A Promiscuous Fight.

This morning about half-past two o'clock a lively fight was in progress at the bagnio of Mrs. Gotthold No. 472 Penn avenue. Officers Pratzer and McChesney were drawn to the scene by the noise. They summoned assistance and a large posse of police under the command of Lieut. Coulson came to the spot. A lively fight was in progress, knives, pop bottles, chairs and table-legs, were being freely handled and passed around over heads. It was bedlam broke loose. The officers succeeded in arresting the following named persons who were engaged in the riot: Robert Cantly, John M. Killman, John F. Jones, John Andrews, Wm. Groves, Andrew Fitzpatrick, James Tylor, William Freeman, John Cox, Lewis Bentz and Mrs. Mena Gotthold. The fight originated about a woman, and some of the parties arrested looked as though their entire affections had been blighted for life. The Mayor will hold a levee for them this morning.

COBBLE STONE CONTROVERSY.

A Demoralizing Row and its Results—How a Man Wasn't Murdered in Allegheny.

Yesterday, about twelve o'clock, three men named John McBratney, John Swords and James Brown, had a fuss on Craig street, near the tunnel, in Allegheny. During the melee McBratney was knocked down, and Swords picked up a cobble stone and struck him on the head with it, rendering him insensible. The two beauties then took to their heels, and McBratney was picked up by some of the Hope engine boys and carried to his home at No. 55 Ann street, and four physicians summoned, as everybody was sure he was going to die. The mother of the injured youth repaired to the Mayor's office and made an information of felonious assault and battery against Swords and Brown. Officers Scott and Lafferty were detailed to arrest them, and had been out about two hours when they came across Swords walking arm in arm with McBratney, who had his head beautifully plastered up, and both were gloriously drunk. Swords was placed in the lock-up, and McBratney went home a sober man.

FIRE COMMISSION.

Adjourned Meeting Last Night—Report of Chief Engineer and Fire Alarm Superintendent—Other Important Matters.

An adjourned meeting of the Fire Commission was held last night in Municipal Hall. The members present were Messrs Mackey, Walton, Stewart, Jones, Torley, Pitcairn, and President Wilson. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The report of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department for the month of July was presented. Mr. White reported the number of alarms in that period to be fifteen. The loss by fire so far as could be estimated amounted to $1,700. The number of suspensions, dismissals and transfers of men in the department was also reported. The document was received and filed and the action of the Chief Engineer in all the cases confirmed.

Captain Fullwood, Superintendent of the Fire Alarm Telegraph, reported that the poles had been removed and re set on Fifth avenue, Pearl street and Butler street, to conform with the new grades on those streets. The connection with the new wires now being erected on the South Side will be made to-day, when the fire alarm telegraph throughout the city will be about one hundred and twenty-five miles in length, with one hundred and fifteen fire alarm boxes in use. Mr. Fullwood requested that a light wagon would be procured by the Commission for the use of himself and repair men in going to the different parts of the city to fix damaged wires, boxes, poles, &c., as the area to be traveled over is too large for a man to walk. On motion of Mr. Stewart the matter was referred to the monthly committe to inquire and report at the next meeting.

All property probated bills for the month of July were ordered to be paid.

Instructions were given to the Monthly Committee to procure a table and an additional number of chairs for use in the Commissioner's room.

A statement was made by the Chairman that all the new engines had arrived, and would be tested on Thursday forenoon on the Monongahela wharf.

Col. Stewart said that more hose was badly needed by the department, and on his motion the Monthly committee was instructed to contract for ten thousand feet of carbolized gum hose, the same as is now in use.

A lot has been purchased on the corner of Ninth and Bingham streets, South Side, on which a building is to be erected in which to place the old Duquesne engine.

On motion of Mr. Pitcairn, a committee was appointed to procure a new Hook and Ladder Truck in place of the one at the East End, which it is proposed to sell.

A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Jones, Watson and Chambers, was appointed to inquire into the expediency of placing an alarm bell on the South Side and attaching an alarm to the bell of the Twentieth ward school house.

On motion, the foreman of the truck in the Seventh avenue engine house was given complete control of both truck and engine and all the men connected with them while in the building.

THE INQUEST ON WEIDER.

Its Conclusion Last Evening—Testimony of Experts—Verdict of the Jury—They Recommend that Oil Refineries be Removed Outside of the City Limits.

The inquest in the case of the man Vincenz Weider, who met his death by the oil explosion at the Commercial Works on last Wednesday morning, was resumed last evening at the Coroner's office. The first witness examined was Mr. McConnell, the foreman of the Commercial Works; he was re-called, but he elicited nothing new. Mr. George Atkinson, United States Inspector of Boilers, testified that he had gone to work and examined the stills that had exploded; it was pretty good iron; the break was peculiar; it was at the bend of the flange, all the way round, where it appeared about a quarter of an inch thick; the explosion was caused by too much pressure; it was more than the head of the still was able to bear; the shell could have borne more; I cannot tell how good the iron was; it was so much burned; the reason the shell could have borne more is, that the head had no supporters or braces; there were 11,309.76 square inches in the head; 2½ pounds pressure per square inch would give the head a pressure of 28,274 pounds; assuming the tensile strength to be 57,000 pounds to the square inch, and the iron to be three-eighths of an inch thick, which with the two sides would make it three-fourths, this would give it 42,750 pounds power of resistance; this is Lyon, Shorb & Co.'s stamp and best brand; it has been decided that, counting the iron 100, the riveted joint is but .56; this iron has either been hurt in the flanging or else been burnt; no iron would break unless there was something of that sort; by deducting one-third of the strength of the head-plate we find that the strength is 28,500 pounds; my opinion is, judging from the character of the break in the still, less than two pounds would have blown this head out; this was torn apart by the force exerted on the whole head; can only form an opinion; the explosion and contraction would cause a break or cause it to give way; it appeared to be good iron; don't consider a still safe without being braced; at least I should judge it safe by having braces in the head; in a steam boiler we allow to a ten feet, 36 pounds to the square inch; that would give it a pressure on the head 407,151 pounds; the pressure on the boiler would be about 6,768 pounds; this shows the difference between the pressure that the shell could withstand and that of the immense head; I believe the pipes were obstructed; there could be no explosion if there is a vent; in oil, if it has water in it, it will cause it to foam if you put fire under it; if condensing vapor fast, and the pipes cannot carry it away fast enough, there must come a back pressure on the still; this is only a conjecture; this might have occurred for an instant; there was enough pitch in the pipes to allow the steam and vapor to escape; the pipes are long and in worms, and have a constant downward tendency; this pipe would have to be filled in order to cause an explosion; stays would have strengthened the head greatly; boiler heads are often strengthened by side bracing; don't think that braces in the centre would have saved it; the heads should have been braced to make it secure; it is not often possible to get a pressure on the heads; the brace would be to strengthen the head all around; don't think a single brace in the centre would have been a help; I should have braced the still; think all stills ought to have safety valves; can not say that the explosion could have been avoided, if a competent man had had charge; I cannot give any intelligent opinion in regard to refining oil; very little pressure would break that head; if I saw a steam boiler spit or leak at the seams I should judge it unsafe, having too great a pressure; I would take it for granted that the stills had too great a pressure if they leaked around the seams; if the caulking was imperfect, it might cause the leak.

Mr. Joseph S. Lowry was the next witness. He testified: am a hydraulic engineer; examined the still with Mr. Atkinson; I coincide with Mr. Atkinson; I don't know what caused the explosion; my impression is that the worm became choked, and thus caused a back pressure; the witness corroborated the previous witness' testimony. There was no angle-iron in the head of the exploded still, though there is in the others; there might have been sufficient back pressure to cause the explosion of the still; when a safety valve is opened on a boiler, it generally throws out water to a great extent; don't think there was a safety valve attached to this still; don't know as it would make more danger for fire on the premises. Mr. Phillip Weisenberger was the next witness: I am an oil refiner, back of the Commercial refinery; was acquainted with the still that exploded; don't know what caused the explosion; I was not there; I never told the Commercial folks that their stills were dangerous; never notified them; I have noticed the still leak a little, nothing unusual, however; never noticed anything wrong; so far as I knew the still-man, he was a competent man; the most careful man sometimes meets with an accident. The next witness was John Weisenberger. Reside in Lawrenceville; am in the oil business with my father; don't know what caused the explosion; passed the still shortly before the explosion; they leaked a little; some of our stills leak sometimes; never notified the Commercial folks that their stills were dangerous; didn't consider them dangerous, yet did not consider them safe, because they leaked that morning; I know the still-man; known him for several years, he is a competent man; have stilled myself; have been in the business between eight and nine years; our place is opposite the Commercial; can't account for the explosion; there is more or less water in all oil; I told one man that I didn't consider one of the stills safe; I said that after the explosion; I didn't think them safe that morning, because they escaped too much gas; I thought they were safe enough, however, to run them off; had I been still-man I think I would have run down my fire; we have no safety valves on our stills; some stills have safety valves.

The next witness was Peter Weisenberger. He testified: I am bookkeeper at Keystone Oil Works; noticed stills leaking; saw still-man, and told him I would not like to run it; it exploded a short time after, not more than five minutes; noticed the still leak that morning; it often leaked; I passed there several times; the still man said nothing in regard to the stills; don't know the still-man.

Mr. McConnell again: There seemed to be no impediments in the pipes; they discharged benzine and water; the pipes showed no boiling over of the stills, for this would have shown crude oil in the receiving house; Mr. Purcell, the still man, has been in our employ, off and-on, about five years; I consider him a sober and steady man, and competent; there was no more fire than usual under the still that morning; it was about an ordinary fire; all stills are fired before the head is put on. This concluded the testimony.

After a long deliberation the jury rendered the following verdict: That the deceased, Vincenz Weider, came to his death August 19th, 1873, caused by the explosion of an oil still at the Commercial Oil Refinery, corner of Thirty-second and Railroad streets, Fifteenth ward, city of Pittsburgh; the cause of said explosion was on account of an over-pressure of steam caused by too much heat under the still, and the still-man not understanding the nature of firing by benzine. We, the jury, unanimously recommend that Councils of the city of Pittsburgh pass an ordinance prohibiting the erection of oil refineries in the thickly settled portions of the city, and cause all refineries that are erected in thickly settled portions of the city to be removed, as they are very dangerous to life, and the city is at all times liable to a great conflagration.

A LEAP INTO THE RIVER.

Jump From the Hand Street Bridge—An Unsuccessful Attempt to Commit Suicide.

About half-past six o'clock last evening Wm. J. Simpson, a man well known in this city, jumped from the Hand street bridge into the Allegheny river. What motive could have prompted him to commit the act we are unable to say, but can at least exercise our privilege of surmising that earth had lost its charms for him and he desired to take up his march for that "bourne from whence no traveler returns." Mr. Simpson paid his toll at the Pittsburgh end of the bridge, and walking down to the lower side, he went over between the first and second piers where he made the leap for death. His sudden descent was witnessed from the banks, and almost as soon as he struck the water a skiff from Riley's boat house was on the way to the rescue, and with such success that the whole affair only ended in Mr. Simpson getting a "ducking." As soon as he felt the water coming in contact with him it is said that he yelled most lustily for assistance. After being taken out of the water he was conveyed home by some of his friends, his struggling in the water having weakened him considerably. Mr. Simpson was formerly proprietor of the Oil Exchange saloon and horse market on Penn street, near Seventh. He has many acquaintances in Pittsburgh and is considered a very clever fellow.

POLICE PARAGRAPHS.

Brief Mention of Criminalities.

JEREMIAH KENNEDY appropriated a carpet sack in the West Penn depot in Allegheny yesterday, and that is the reason why he sailed for Claremont for a three months stay.

MRS CATHARINE GILL charges George Harve, Charles Hilger and a man named Zimmer, before Deputy Mayor Irwin, with selling liquor to her son, who is but seventeen years of age. They have given bail for a hearing.

THE Mayor has issued a warrant for the arrest of William Lee on a charge of assault and battery preferred by his wife, Alice Lee. She alleges that on Sunday he pushed her on a red hot stove, and on Monday struck her on the arm with a toasting iron.

TERENCE COYLE had a coy-lission with Joseph and Matilda Brooks, husband and wife, and their sister Maria on Sunday. Coyle keeps a "gin mill" on Second avenue, and he alleges that the defendants broke his windows with stones and attracted a crowd. Malicious mischief and riot is the charge. They are held in $500 bail each.

JOHN SMITH alias James Wallace is held for a hearing before the Mayor on a charge of robbing hen roosts on Thirty-third street. He was arrested by officer Cotton, on Monday night. He made strenuous efforts to get away, even jumping into the Allegheny river in hope of escaping. It was no go, however, and he is now temporarily roosting in the lock-up.

YESTERDAY Mrs. Showers, a blind woman, entered suit before Deputy Mayor Salisbury charging her husband, William Showers, with disorderly conduct. He was discharged from the Work House only last week, and Monday night he obtained a pistol and threatened to kill the members of his family, composed of his wife and four small children, but owing to outside interference, he was prevented from executing his plans, and was ejected from the house. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

We are glad to announce to our readers that Dr. H. W. C. Tweddie received a telegram from Vienna last evening stating the award of the first medal and certificate of merit to the Eclipse Company for Eclipse Lubricating Oils made under his patents. The Dr. has long been known as the leading manufacturer of Lubricating Oils, and especially of the Eclipse Oils. The Eclipse Oils are used by many of the principal railroads and leading manufactories in the United States and gives very great satisfaction.

A lively game expected this afternoon at Union Park, between the Enterprise club, of Allegheny, and the Red Stockings, of Johnstown.

THE SOLDIERS REUNION.

The Army of the Cumberland—Who will be Here—Letters From Prominent Men—Acceptors and Decliners.

The Seventh annual reunion here next month, of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland, gives thus early, promise of being one of the largest and most interesting meetings ever held by that soldier organization. It occurs on the 17th and 18th of September, just one year from the time the great Soldiers and Sailors National Convention was held here, and which was so largely attended by tens of thousands of visitors from all sections of the United States. Although the Army of the Cumberland reunion will not be near so large in numbers, its proceedings will be read with avidity and interest by old veterans everywhere. The local Executive Committee is busily engaged in making every arrangement that will add to the pleasure and comfort of the guests. Letters are constantly being received from late soldiers, a great many accepting the invitation sent them, and others saying they are unable to attend. In many cases pertinent suggestions are offered. Through the kindness of Col. Norman M. Smith we are enabled to present our readers with extracts from the letters possessing the greatest interest. The following is from "Fighting Joe Hooker:"

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY.

GENTLEMEN: I have the pleasure to inform you in reply to your invitation, that I fully expect to be one of your number in your approaching anniversary.

With great respect, I have the honor to be your friend and servant.

J. HOOKER, Major General.

Gen. John A. Dix, Governor of the State of New York, writes that engagements will prevent him from leaving the State.

General Robert B. Beath says: "It will give me great pleasure to meet socially the survivors of an organization that won such a proud name for its services during the rebellion, and I therefore, very cheerfully accept your invitation."

United States Attorney General Williams, writes from Washington City, that owing to prior engagements for that time he cannot attend.

Brigadier General C. H. Grosvenor, of Athens, Ohio, says: "General Health and strength permitting, I will attend the re-union of our dear old society at Pittsburgh on the 17th proximo."

From Major General T. J. Wood, of Dayton, Ohio: "This will be the first meeting of the society I have been absent from, and I pray it may be the last. Salute all comrades present in my name with my earnest wishes that the meeting may be numerously attended, and that all may have a good time."

"Orders for distant service" will prevent General Whitely, of the Allegheny Arsenal, this city, from being on hand.

Here is a ringing letter from Major N. F. Boydston, of Warsaw, Indiana. "With pleasure I accept the call to once more 'fall in' and rehearse with those I meet there the busy scenes of camp and field, which for five long years was my lot and helped make my history. I am straight for God, my country and U. S. Grant."

Major Wm. C. Bunts, City Solicitor of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "I have just come from the studio of Miss C. L. Ransom, where I have been looking at the magnificent portrait of General Thomas, recently finished by her in the city of New York. You perhaps noticed the very favorable criticisms of it in the New York Herald, Times and other papers. The picture is, frame and all, nine by eleven feet. I requested her to have it at our meeting in Pittsburgh. She said she would do so if your hall or place of meeting would be favorable to showing it. I know that every member of the old army would be greatly gratified to see it."

Adjutant General H. M. Cist, Secretary of the Society, writes from Cincinnati that he will be on hand with his picture of General Rosecranz, and will endeavor to have sent from the Soldier's Home at Dayton, Ohio, the portrait of General Thomas that is there.

Captain J. P. Mansfield, of Cannelton, Beaver county, wishes to be counted in at roll call, and, "God willing, I will be with you," comes from Brigadier General Thos. J. Jorden at Williamsport, Pa.

J. H. Coggswell, late Lieutenant Colonel of the 150th N. Y. Volunteers, now one of the editors of the Titusville Herald, and General C. C. McCormick late of the 7th Pennsylvania cavalry, and who is now residing at Milton Pa., both write that they will be ready for duty.

Brig. General Durbin Ward of Lebanon, Ohio, has been selected as the orator of the occasion. He will deliver an address on the organization, services, dissolution and imperishable record of the "Army of the Cumberland." Quite a number of other distinguished men are announced to be present; Maj. General Sheridan, President of the Society; Maj. Generals Buell Rosecranz and Sherman the three surviving commanders of the Army of the Cumberland, also President Grant, Generals Belknap and Logan and Governor Noyes of Ohio.

BREVITIES.

....Mrs. Thorn had twelve dollars taken from her pocket in the Allegheny market house yesterday.

....We understand the Consolidated Gas Company will be ready to commence making attachments to buildings on Smithfield street the latter part of this week.

....All the Allegheny Poor Farm lots were sold yesterday. The building and six lots were bought by Mr. Lang, of Allegheny, for $8,525, and the entire sale netted about $60,000.

....A boy named Faulhaber, residing on Third street, Allegheny, yesterday, while out in his bare feet, stepped on a broken pop bottle and cut one of them very severely. Dr. Hartmeyer attended him.

....A man named A. G. Armstrong, of Toledo, Ohio, related a story at the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon of how he had been swindled out of fifty dollars by a confidence man. The matter ended there.

....Lizzie Kelson (colored) had a hearing yesterday before the Mayor on a charge of cutting Mrs. Richards at a ball, on Monday night, at Lafayette Hall. In default of $2,000 bail she was committed to jail for trial. She is the same woman who attempted to kill Shef. Cooper some weeks ago.

....Edward Powers died suddenly early yesterday morning, at the residence of James McSwiggen, corner of Twenty-second and Sarah streets, South Side. His home was at Latrobe. The coroner was notified to hold an inquest on the remains, but after hearing the statement of the attending physician, he decided that it would be unnecessary, as the man died of consumption.

....The Republican Convention of Cambria county met on Monday afternoon at Ebensburg, and nominated the following ticket: Assembly, Samuel Henry, of Ebensburg; Sheriff, John F. Harris, Johnstown; County Treasurer, Thomas Griffith, Ebensburg; Commissioner, James Conrad; Poor Director, Tobias Stutzman, Yoder township; Auditor, John Cushon, Conemaugh township; Jury Commissioner, E. P. Barker.

....Yesterday a dispatch was received by Chief of Police Irwin from Jno. D. Kelley at Richmond, Indiana, asking about the satchel found in the possession of a tramp by officer Grady: The writer stated that his satchel, containing a quantity of white metal ware, cheap jewelry, etc., etc., had been stolen from him on the 18th inst., while en route to Pittsburgh via the fast line on the Pennsylvania Railroad. He supposed it had been stolen either at Altoona or Johnstown. The description given of the property by the writer was very minute, and at his request the satchel and contents were forwarded to him by express.

....On Monday evening the workmen employed at the American Iron Works of Jones & Laughlin, held a meeting at the Fountain Garden saloon, on Carson street, and after discussing the late explosion decided to request their employers to make a thorough inspection of all the boilers now in use in the mill, in order that they may be made safe if found defective; otherwise they will inaugurate a strike. Wm. Sproats, the engineer in charge at the time of the explosion on Monday morning, says that the boiler that bursted then was old and imperfect, and the action of the employees was no doubt the result of his assertion.

PERSONAL.

Messrs. John H. Shoenberger, George R. White and John Holmes were at Saratoga at last accounts.

District Attorney Bayne landed in New York from Europe on Sunday on the steamer "Batavia."

James Onslow, Esq., Secretary of the Republican County Executive Committee, will make his headquarters at Lincoln Club Rooms, where he will be most happy to meet and attend to one and all having business with the Committee.

Major W. S. Beebe has published a card in which he says that "the person, or persons, who originated the statement that there was any pecuniary or other understanding with the Philadelphia club in the recent game between them and the Iron City club, to allow the latter club to make runs, or any agreement of any kind whatever to that effect, or that I or any other member of the Iron City club knew of or proposed such agreement, such persons are wilful and malicious liars." The Major goes on to say that any person of respectable standing feeling themselves aggrieved by the above can communicate with him in person or by mail, at the Allegheny Arsenal.

A Grand Indorsement.

As the Wilson Sewing Machine has received the first premium medal at Vienna, it therefore goes upon record that the congregated wisdom, as represented at Vienna, has decided that the Wilson Sewing Machine is the best in the world. This is a grand indorsement, and a compliment to Yankee ingenuity, which could not have been gained in any other way than by absolute and unqualified merit. Those who wish to purchase a sewing machine, should find in this approval sufficient to induce them to risk an investment in the Wilson. Mr. Lee S. Smith, General Agent, No. 14 Sixth street, will sell you the machine and warrant it for five years. Do not fail to examine what has received the world's endorsement.

Montrose.

The Improvement Trust Company will sell lots in this village on Monday of each week, commencing June 30. An officer of the company will be on the gound at that day for the purpose of showing the lots and selling them at private sale. Those wishing to attend the sales will be furnished tickets at any time by calling at the office, No. 75 Fourth avenue. Trains leave Federal street station of the West Penn Railroad at 9:30 A. M., 10:50 A. M. and 2 P. M. Private sales also at office, 75 Fourth avenue. MWF Go early to Union Park to witness the great base ball match this afternoon.

A Hint to Housewives—How to Keep Kitchen Ware Clean and Bright.

Every housewife of neat and tidy habits takes especial delight in keeping all the tin, copper, and iron ware of her kitchen as clean and bright as painstaking labor can make them. A pride in this direction is commendable, and always meets the smiling approval of the "tyrant man" who pays the household bills. Remember that SAPOLIO is the only thing on earth that will make an old tarnished tin pan or a rusty kettle shine as bright as new. And by the use of Sapolio it is the quickest and easiest thing in the world to keep every utensil in a high state of polish.

This afternoon the Enterprise Base Ball Club, of Allegheny, play the Red Stockings, of Johnstown, at Union Park.

Special Train for Races.

At Friendship Driving Park, will leave Union Depot at 2 o'clock (city time) on Wednesday, August 27.

THE RACES TO-DAY.

Programme for To-Day—A Grand Race in Prospect—$3,500 the Amount of To-Day's Purses.

To day the Fall meeting of the Friendship Driving Park Association commences at their newly laid-out and elegant grounds adjoining Friendship Grove. This will prove an era in turf matters in Pittsburgh, and if we mistake not, it will be an event of which the citizens of this vicinity may well be proud. The management have gone to a great expense in fitting up their ground and tracks, and they have erected comfortable buildings for the reception of visitors, and they have not forgotten the comfortable housing for the valuable stock that will be brought to the ground.

The arrangements that have been made for the reception of ladies are at once grand and complete, and the management intend that the ladies shall give countenance to and elevate the moral standard of the turf in Pittsburgh. We spoke of the track and its surroundings at length yesterday. We think that nothing that we said then needs repetition now, but we can say that the liberal purses offered and the entries that have been made, and with the programme as arranged, the races cannot help to prove otherwise than a grand unequivocal success. From the sale of the season badges already accomplished, we should judge that a full quota of a respectable attendance is already assured. The management have made the completest arrangements for carrying visitors to and from the Park. There will be special trains, extra cars on the Penn avenue line, and extra 'busses will be run from forks of the road at Lawrenceville. We can assure all who attend a pleasant time, and can also assure them that the strictest order will be maintained, and that ample police arrangements have been made, so that none need fear to bring their families. There are two races to be run to-day, and the purses offered foot up $3,500. That very interesting sport may be expected can not be doubted. If the weather proves at all favorable, we opine that the seating capacity of the grand stand, at least, will be tested to its full capacity. At no time in the history of the turf in this vicinity has a series of races created more interest, and the reason is plainly because the right men have hold of the matter, and they know how to fully carry out their object, and with success. They display no niggardly feeling, but they go into this work with a will and a vim and a vigor that means success from the word go. Whatever may be said of other driving parks, the East End is bound to be the place, and only there will a track succeed. That no pains have been spared to make these races a success, can be easily seen by referring to the premium lists and entries. There will be no failures, if the weather is at all fair, for each day, and for each race, a sufficient number of horses will start to make the races a matter of keen interest to the eager spectator. And again, all races will be run according to the National rules, mile heats, best three in five to harness. Nothing then can prove more interesting than this series of races. The programme as marked out for to-day includes a 2:50 race for a purse of $1,500; $750 to go to first horse, $375 to the second, $225 to the third, $150 to the fourth. In this race entries have been made as follows:

Frank Thwaite, Lambertville, N. J., g. g. "Bertie."

S. Odikirk, Freehold, N. J., blk. m. "Lady Gertrude."

J. A. Baker, Corry, Pa., b. m. "Bay Sal."

Geo. Smith, Steubenville, O., b. m. "Belle Berkley."

Maj. Munroe, Pittsburgh, b. m. "Kitty D."

O. S. Howard, Pittsburgh, s. g. "Skylark," (formerly "Topgallant.")

M. Floyd, Pittsburgh, b. g. "Perry."

J. Call, Utica, N. Y., c. m. "Lizzie."

B. Marshall, Freehold, N. J., s. m. "Patchen Maid."

As is now most likely that the entire nine will start, this will prove a race of rare interest.

The second race is for a purse of $2,000, for horses that never beat 2:30. The first horse in this race will receive $1,000, the second $500, the third $300 and $200 to go to the fourth. This will settle the days sport. The following entries for this race have been made.

W. S. Frazier, Sharon, Pa.—b. g. "Brother Jonathan," (formerly "Advance.")

George W. Camp, Chardon, O.—blk. h. "Columbia Chief."

J. Odikirk, Freehold, New Jersey,—s. g. "Irving."

Theodore Kestner, Pittsburgh—r. g. "Slow Go."

J. W. Clark, Pittsburgh—b. m. "Kate Campbell."

As will be seen in this last race, five entries have been made, and as all the horses will start, a race of interest may be expected. For to-morrow another rich programme is laid out. We advise our readers to be on hand early, as the starts will all be made promptly on time.

A Pleasing Sight.

As you pass up Federal street, Allegheny, just as you enter the Park you will see the sign of the North Side Institute on the north side of the Park, &c. You will instinctively say, "what a delightful situation!" And so indeed it is. This school is conducted by T. E. Wakeham, whose past career is a perpetual testimony in his favor. It opens next Monday—let places be engaged a few days before. The Principal at the rooms any morning at nine.

Take Care of the Children.

Dr. Harris' Summer Cordial is highly recommended for children teething. It is a pleasant, mild neutralizing Cordial, and free from every possible objection. I should be in every house where there are children.

Base Ball! Base Ball!

Go to day to Union Park and see the great game.

Special Train for Races

At Friendship Driving Park, will leave Union Depot at 2 o'clock (city time) on Wednesday, August 27.

The Enterprise, of Allegheny, and the Red Stockings, of Johnstown, play a grand match at base ball to day at Union Park.

Dr. Harris' Summer Cordial is warranted to cure Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Sick Stomach, and Cholera.

ADOPT THE PREVENTIVE POLICY.

Severe spells of billiousness, indigestion, chills and fever, diarrhea, nervous headache and physical exhaustion are quite usual at this season. These are visitations which everybody is anxious to avoid, and as a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will unquestionably fortify the system against them, the most valuable medical advice which can be offered at this time to persons subject to such complaints or at all sensitive to atmospheric changes, is to commence taking this powerful vegetable alterative and invigorant without delay. Forty-eight hours will not have elapsed after the first dose before a marked change will have manifested itself in the condition of the system. The ultimate result will be a habit of body so regular, a genial condition so vigorous, that however unhealthy the season may chance to be, the system thus refreshed and reinforced will be in the very best possible trim to encounter it.

Fourth Annual Sale.

GREAT AUCTION SALE

OF

CARRIAGES AND HARNESS,

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION AT

McKelvey's Carriage Bazaar,

NO. DIAMOND STREET,

Near Liberty, PITTSBURGH, PA.

I have on hand the largest assortment of Carriages that I have ever offered to the public at any previous auction sale, on WEDNESDAY, August 27, 1873. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M., precisely. It is my desire to supply the people for less money than they can buy the same article in any other part of the State. I have on hand Coaches, Coupes, 6-Pass. Rockaways, 4 Pass. Barouches, Top Buggies, No-Top Buggies, Jagger Wagons and Buck Wagons, both new and second-hand, of every description, and claim to have the largest stock of any house in the city or State. At the same time, one fine Laudaulette, made by John Curtis, Cincinnati, which took the premium at the Great Industrial Fair in that city: original cost $2,500. It is richly trimmed with brown satin, and is the most exquisite carriage ever exhibited in this city. This will be sold for what it will bring. Particular invitation is given to call at my Bazaar and inspect it before the sale. Also, a large assortment of new and second-hand single and double harness, the finest ever offered at public sale in this city. Parties in need of the above mentioned articles should not fail to attend this sale, as it will be a positive one. No postponement on account of weather.

☞ Terms—Cash, or 4 months' credit, with approved security, with the usual interest added.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

FIFTH AVENUE

AND

WOOD STREET PROPERTY

FOR SALE.

A sale in partition in the estate of Alex. McClurg, deceased.

3 Lots on Fifth avenue, adjoining Dispatch buildings, 20 feet front (each) and 120 feet deep, with the buildings occupied as stores.

2 Lots, 18 feet each, fronting on Virgin alley, 120 feet (immediately in rear of above Lots,) with buildings.

2 Lots, 18 feet each front on Wood street, near 4th avenue, 90 feet deep, with 3 story buildings, occupied as business houses, with Hall above. Known as Lafayette Hall.

1 Lot, 20 feet front on Fourth avenue, four stories, building occupied as offices.

To capitalists and business men here is one of the best chances that has been offered for a long time to make a good investment that will pay largely on the amount invested, at the same time the property is increasing in value, as all who know the property know it to be among the most valuable in the city.

Will be sold at a reasonable price and on good terms to close up the estate. Apply to
